

Edinburgh, Alloa and Leith Ale, Wines, Spirits, &c.

GEORGE FRASER,
Grocer and Wine Merchant,

No. 190, Brunswick Street,
(Opposite Pavilion Barrack,)

HALIFAX, N. S.,

Ginger Beer and Cordial Manufacturer.

London and Dublin Porter.

PIANO FORTES and other Musical Instruments. Mr. Philips respectfully invites the attention of the ladies and gentlemen of Halifax, and the Province generally, to his splendid assortment of Square, Picolo and Cottage Piano Fortes, of 6 $\frac{1}{2}$  Octaves, with metallic Sounding Board, and soft and loud Pedal, which he offers for sale at his Wareroom, corner of Granville Street, (formerly known as the Somerset House) opposite the north west corner of the Province Building.

These Instruments have been recently imported from Hamburg, and are of the most modern and elegant finish, and having been manufactured for this climate, are warranted.

Mr. Philips is prepared to repair and tune Piano Fortes.

Orders received for all kinds of Musical Instruments— which shall have prompt attention and be duly executed.

September 1, 1845.

FAHNESTOCK'S VERMIFUGE. A fresh supply of this valuable Medicine has been received by the Subscriber (who is Agent in this Province for B. A. Fahnestock & Co.) and is offered for sale, wholesale and retail; together with a general assortment of DRUGS, MEDICINES, PATENT MEDICINES, &c., on the lowest terms; at the new Shop, No. 152 Granville Street, one door North of Mr. Billing's London House.

September 1, 1845.

JOHN NAYLOR.

THE MORNING HERALD, and General Advertiser, published every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday Mornings by Wm. Cannabell. Office No. 3, Connor's (formerly Marchington's) Wharf, Halifax. Terms, Price per Copy, One Penny; for six months, 6d 3d; for one year, 12s payable half yearly in advance. Every description of Book and Fancy Job Printing, in all its departments, executed with neatness and despatch, at this Office. Sept. 1.

MACKENZIE & CO., Booksellers, Stationers, and Printers, 155, Granville Street, Halifax, N. S.

September 1, 1845.