Toronto, Feb. 23 -On last Lord's day (22ud), at Denison Avenue, a young lady was received by letter; a young man was received who had recently been baptized, and another young man confessed faith in Jesus. A number of our people went to Bowmanville to rejoice with the brethren there at the opening of their house. J. R. GAYF.

Wiarton, Feb. 21 .- The series of meetings conducted by Bro. Lediard have closed, the immediate result being seven additions to the little church here, one restored and six by obedience. It has been a season of spiritual growth and rejoicing with us. Bro. Tovell was with us on Lord's day, confessions were taken, and in the ovening three were buried in baptism and raised to walk in the new life. L. E. C.

St. Thomas, Fcb. 18 .- Our meeting closed on last Monday evening with three baptisms, making twenty three added to the Lord, and all by confession and baptism during Bro. Moffatt's four weeks' preaching. Much good has been done besides these immediate results by the clear and forcible presentation of the truth to the people. We have organized a Y.P.S.C.E., and are hopeful of good results, a blessing to our young members, the church, and friendly young people.

HAMILTON, Feb. 22 .- One excellent man made the good confession during Bro. Franklin's meeting. I learned since that Bro. Franklin had seven confessions the first Lord's day after he arrived home. This is one illustra tion of the difference between worl here and the States. Had two addi tions inst week by obedience to the Gospel of Christ. One united recently by letter, tasking four added since last report. Sorry I could not attend the opening services in Bowmanville. May the Lord bless the efforts of those М. Рети с. brethron.

PECULIARITIES OF THE DISCIPLES .- A series of five sermous by B. B. Tyler. Paper cover, 25c., post paid.

I have just road "Peculiarities of the Disciples," a series of five sermons by B. B Tyler. I am much pleased with these sermons, and believe their wide circulation will do good. Bro. Tyler understands the gospol of Christ, and loves to present it to his fellowmen in its New Testament setting. There discourses very clearly and correctly set forth the teaching of those who are pleading for primitive Christianity. Bro, Tyler has been misjudged. Many brothren have thought him over-liberal. His five sermons prove him true to the peculiar and distinctive positions of our rapidly growing brotherhood. Let the little book be read by many. We have confidence in it. Frank Talmage. Pittsburg, Pa., June 21, 1890.

TURNING POINTS .- By Jno. L. Brandt. A series of discourses to young men and women. Price, post paid,

We are always interested in books of instruction and incitement for the young. Holland's "Timothy Titcomb's Letters" marked a new era in such books in behalf of youth; and now for more than a quarter of a century there has been almost a steady stream of acter. Mrs. Power's "Introduction" is both sensible and vivid in its statements of the interests of youth in this particular age. To characterize the book in a sentence it will be found good in its invigorating spirit, its pure tious, its impressive exhortations.

"A Vision of the Ages"; or, Lectures on the Apocalypso. A complete view of the book of Revolation. By B. W. Johnson. This work has been received with great favor as the best exposition of this wonderful prophetic book. Three editions have been called for within about a year of its appearance. 12mo, cloth. $1.25.
