

A list of words has been received from Ottawa to be translated into Shushwap for the purpose of compiling a vocabulary of comparative philology of all the Indian Languages of North America that can be obtained.

We will try to answer the above demand in the following numbers of the Wawa. Only, as a list of the most essential words had already been prepared; that list will