Last week we witnessed in Montreal a somewhat novel sight—a mission to Protestants conducted by the Rev. Father Youman, under the auspices of the Roman Catholic Church. The good father is so subtle in his perversion of Scripture texts that he carries his hearers along with him unless they are well-grounded in the truth. This offer was accepted and in 1890 Mr. and Mrs. Martin went to Tarsus where they remained one year. In 1892 they removed to Hajin, Turkey, where abundant success has crowned their labors. The work has received many set backs owing to Armenian massacres and the hostile attitude of the Turkish government. The missionaries themselves were scarcely safe, as Mr. Martin
