A NEW BOOK BY THE AUTHOR
OF "BEN HUR."

THE PRINCE OF INDIA

OR—

WHY CONSTANTINOPLE FELL

—BY—

GENERAL LEW WALLACE.

The remarkable but not unexpected eagerness shown by the reading public, since the announcement of a new story from the pen of the author of "Ben Hur," ensures a wide welcome for the book, which now place on the market. Admirers of "Ben-Hur" will carry their admiration through the reading of "The Prince of India." Its pages live with the vivid realism of that wonderful story. Appropriate testing is supplied by the finished and elegant volumes in which our Canadian edition is brought out.

Cloth, 2 vols., - - - $2.50

A MERCHANT PRINCE.

LIFE OF

HON. SENATOR JOHN MACDONALD.

—BY—

REV. HUGH JOHNSTON, D.D.

Cloth, illustrated, - - - $1.00.

Dr. Johnston has written what might almost be termed a model biography in his presentation of the life of the late Senator Macdonald, founder of the great dry goods house of John Macdonald & Co. Senator Macdonald's was a life brimful of the highest activities and the noblest deeds. This long course of mercantile and public life brought him not only wealth and position but the respect and esteem of all his countrymen. This admirable record of his life makes very interesting and pleasant reading.
