

The Warden of the Plains

and Other Stories.

By JOHN MACLEAN, M.A., Ph.D.

Illustrated by J. E. LAUGHLIN.

PRICE, - - $1.25.

"In these pages Dr. Maclean has gathered a number of stories and sketches illustrating the strange life of our great Northwest. The contact between savagery and civilization on the frontier has developed some remarkable social conditions. Oxford University men, fierce desperadoes, zealous missionaries, Indian braves and adventurous spirits from east and west figure in these pages in strong, dramatic sketches. Dr. Maclean has rendered a distinct service to Canadian literature by photographing in this series of pictures a type of Canadian life which is fast passing away."—W. H. Withrow, D.D., F.R.S.C.

MOTLEY: Verses Grave and Gay

By J. W. BENGOUGH,

ILLUSTRATED BY THE AUTHOR,

PRICE, $1.00.

In this little volume, as those who know our great Canadian humorist's gifts in the use of pen and pencil will readily believe, the humorous and the pathetic are interblended, and the result is a book that deserves a place in every library. It is especially commended to public readers.

The Mineral Wealth of ... Canada ...

By ARTHUR B. WILLMOTT, M.A., B.Sc.

PROFESSOR OF NATURAL SCIENCE, MCMASTER
UNIVERSITY, TORONTO; FORMERLY
ASSISTANT IN MINERALOGY,
HARVARD UNIVERSITY.

Cloth, $1.00, Postpaid.

"In his introduction he compares our mineral resources with those of other countries, and explains where our minerals are found. He then takes up each kind of ore, notes how it occurs, the different varieties, and where each is found, ending his book with a chapter on soils and mineral fertilizers, and some tables. The author has performed his work very thoroughly."—Canadian Magazine.

"The great trouble hitherto has been the need of some available book which in non-technical language would give to the general reader full, adequate and reliable information regarding the formation, extent, development and value of our mineral deposits; and at length such a book has been published clear, definite, comprehensive, reliable, and at the same time interesting, the author's work leaves nothing to be desired."—The Canadian Teacher.
