DR. THOS. O'HAGAN'S NEW

BOOK. We beg to draw the attention of our many readers to the advertisement of Dr. O'Hagan's new work, entitled "Canadian Essays." The book appeals especially to all interested in our country and its history and will prove invaluable to the scholar, the teacher and the parent. It is a decided acquisition to our Catholic Canadian literature. The price of the book

'A BRILLIANT YOUNG PUPIL. London, July 22.-Miss Eva I. Traher, the winner of the Murphy gold medal at the recent entrance examinations, secured the highest number of marks of any pupil from the separate schools of this city, was formerly a pupil of the Ladies' Academy of the Sacred Heart, Queen's Avenue, and spent the last three years at the Holy Angels' separate school. She is only 13 years of age, and is to be highly commended for her brilliant work. She is the daughter of Mrs. Traher (widow of the late John C. Traher) 387 Dufferin avenue, and is also a niece of the Rev. Father Traher, of St. Mary's Church, this city. The family are well known in musical circles, Mrs. Traher being the leaded of St. Mary's Church choir, and Mr. Hubert Y. Traher, a brother of Miss Eva, is the organist of St. Peter's Cathedral.

Peterborough, July 16 .- At, Peier's cathedral this morning about 9 o'clock, Miss Catherine McGuire, daughter of Mr. John McGuire, of Douro, and Mr. John Meagher, of Chicago, formerly of town, were united in marriage. Rev. Father O'Sullivan officiated. The bride was assistcd by Miss Maloney, of Lindsay, while the groomsman was Mr. W. E. Meagher, brother of the groom. The bride was becomingly attired in a travelling suit of grey cloth with a tucked bodice of white silk, and wore a white hat with chiffon trimming. The bridesmaid wore a pretty gown of white organdie trimmed with valenciennes lace and insertion, and wore a white chilfon hat.

After the ceremony the wedding earty repaired to the residence of Mr. Fred. Cook, brother-in-law of the groom, where a sumptuous wedding epast was partaken of.

Mr. and Mrs. Meagher left on the 11.34 G. T. R. train for their future home in Chicago. Many friends were at the depot to say farewell and extend best wishes.

BURDETT-GALVIN.

Hamilton, July 22.-St. Mary's Cathedral was the scene of an early morning wedding to-day, but a large number of the friends and well-wishers of the couple were on hand to witness the ceremony. The parties were Mr. Frank Burdett and Miss Nora Galvin. The bride was charmingly gowned in a travelling costume of pearl grey cashmere, and her maid, Miss Monica McKeever, looked beautiful in white muslin. Mr. John Cummings was groomsman. Rev. Father Maliony officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Burdett left for Toronto after the wed. ding, and will proceed to St. Anne's, are to that colebrated shrine to-morrow.

High School Entrance

The following are the successful candidates at the entrance examinations of the Catholic schools held at the De La Salle Institute. The total number of pupils writing were 98, out of which 90 received sufficient percentage to pass. The total number of marks obtainable was 870. Each pupil to pass was compelled to receive 50 per cent., and Inspector Brother Odo Baldwin, in speaking of the results, expressed himself well satisfied: BOYS.

ORDINATIONS IN THE BASILIAN ORDER.

On Friday morning, the 26th inst. the Rev. E. Pagcau will be ordained to the Holy Priesthood, in Sandwich, by the Rt. Rev. F. P McEvay, Bishop of London. Mr. Pagcau made his course at St. Michael's College, and his Novitiate and scholastic te at St. Basil's Novitiate. He will be professor of the 1st Commercial class in Houston, Texas, next year. On Sunday morning at the nine o'clock mass His Grace Archbishop O'Connor will ordain to the Holy Priesthood Rev. Messrs. A. Staley, W. Koach and M. T. Roach. The three named gentlemen made their course 'n St. Michael's College, their Noviti etc and Scholasticate in St. Basil's Novitiate. Mr. Staley, who was born on Wolfe Island, but whose parents at present reside in Kingston, bears the distinction of being the first person of that parish to whom God granted a vocation to the Holy Priesthood. He will sing his first High Mass in St. Mary's Cathedral, Kingston, on Sunday, Aug. 4th. Next year Father Staley will have charge of the 1st Commercial class in Sandwich.

Mr. T. and W. Roach will enjoy a blessing which is granted to few, that of two brothers being ordained together. Their parents at present reside in Brechin, but lived for years on Church street, this city, and are very well known in St. Basil's Parish. Father M. T. Roach will sing his first High Mass in St. Anne's Church, Brechin, on Sunday, Aug. 4th, and Father W. Roach one week later. Father M. T. Roach will be in St. Michael's College till Christmas, when he will take charge of his class in Waco, Texas. Father W. will take charge of Belles Lettres in Sand-

OBITUARY.

MRS. D. J. DONAHUE. The St. Thomas Times of July 18 says: The obsequies of the late Mrs. Mary Teresa Donahue, wife of D. J. Donahue, K. C., County Crown Attorney, took place yesterday morning at 9 o'clock, the cortege moving from the residence, No. 106 Wellington street, to the Church of the Holy Angels, where the full requiem service, including the mass, was held, Rev. Jos. Bayard, Vicar-General, officait-ing as celebrant, with Mrs. Hebert, organist, in charge of the choir. the choir, and now residing in London, came down to assist at the service. The church was filled to its capacity and overflowing with the sorrowing relatives, friends, sympathizing neighbors and acquaintances of P Revnolds, formerly a member of this city and vicinity, including many consequence 1 received an order to send half a dozen by express to Wexford, Ireland, this week."

from other cities, towns and communities adjacent. Members of every religious denomination were present to testify the high esteem in which the deceased was held, and to pay her memory the last tribute of respect.

The three altars-the large main altar, the altar of the Blessed Virgin, and the altar of St. Joseph-and the statue of the Sacred Heart, were beautifully illuminated with candles. Mrs. Donahue was President of the League of the Sacred Heart, President of the Altar Society, and a member of the Confraternity of Mount Carmel.

The impressive rubrical requiem service lasted about one hour. Owing to the length of the service and the fact return from the Catholic cemetery to celebrate the last wass at 11 o'clock, memorial remarks were omitted.

At the Offertory Mrs. Chas. Waters sang with much feeling and pathos hvmn, "Calvary."

As the remains were being conveved from the church by the bearers, the hymn, "Nerrer, My God, to Thee," was feelingly rendered by the choir, Miss Emily Chalut singing the solo. The great majority of those present were visibly affected, many being unable to refrain from sobbing as the casket containing the carthly remains of their noble exemplary relative and friend was silently, gently and rever-ently removed from their midst forever, in the last stage of its journey to the silent tomb. The shrine of her numberless visits and pious aspira tions in life has paid its final visit in silence. The soul, glowing with devout, zealous charity in confraternity and at large, has winged its way to is eternal reward, and its void in the community, religiously and socially, will stand in the hearts of the people as a permanent monument to her virtuous memory

The Vicar-General accompanied the remains to the cemetery and perform. ed the last religious rites over the

The bearers were His Honor Judge Hughes, A. E. Wallace, A. McCrimmon, D. E. W. Gustin, D. McLaws and S. B. Pocock.

The relatives and friends present from a distance were Sheriff Brady, father of deceased, and the Misses Brady, Woodstock; Frank Brady, Toronto; D. A. Poole, brother-in-law, Woodstock; Mr. Dawson, London; Mr. and Mrs. E. Insel and son, Port Huron; Mrs. Baker and Miss Mary Donahue, Detroit; Peter Kennedy and P. C. Enright, Ingersoll; W. McMillen and D. Coughlin, London; Miss Minnie Keating, Ingersoll. The floral offerings were of unusual beauty. HOW SHE SOLVED THE PROBLEM.

A lesson in arithmetic is no joke, a painful reality, rather, yet a Boston school boy is alleged to have been inspired to humor by the very worst of the problems in long division, says
The Youth's Companion, After he had failed on the sums the teacher set, he asked permission to give one of his own. The privilege was granted.

"My aunt has eight children," he said, "and she doesn't like to favor one above another. She was at the market the other day, and she bought eight apples for them, one apiece; but when she got home she found she'd lost one apple. All the same, she divided the apples so as to give each child the same number. How did she do it?"

The class hadn't got along to fractions, and the boy insisted that his aunt knew nothing about algebra. So the puzzled teacher finally asked: Well, how did she divide the seven apples so as to give each of the eight children an equal number? "She made apple sauce."

WOULDN'T NEED IT.

A good story is told of an Irish sergeant who was wounded in the head and invalided home from South Africa. The doctor who removed the bullet accidentally removed a little bit of the brain with it. Prompted by a sense of honor he wrote to the sergeant and asked him if he would like this bit of brain returned to him. The soldier with true Irish wit, replied: "Thank you, no. I shall not want it, as I have got a situation in the War Office."
