EDITORIAL.

WITH the present number, we complete the sixth volume of The Antiquarian which we trust will compare favourably with any of its predecessors. We are sensible of many short-comings, and shall endeavour to improve in the future. To those who have had any experience in the conduct of such a Magazine, we need scarcely explain how difficult it is to find original matter, and friends who have the leisure to assist us in our labours; it would help us greatly if our subscribers would send us reliable facts which may add to our general fund
