

DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

It was known many years ago that the wild cherry tree of this climate possessed valuable medicinal properties. Indeed, this fact was known to the aborigines, and a decoction of the leaves or bark of this tree has ever been regarded by their physicians as one of the most effectual remedies in many diseases.

CHANGE OF THE SEASONS!

AND NEW, CHEAP AND SEASONABLE DRY GOODS.

The showers of the Spring are but shed o'er the land, The earth but unfettered from Winter's grim hand; Its breezes but felt, and its verdure but seen, When it passes away with the Springs that have been, The Summer comes on with its sweet smelling flowers, Its rich verdant fields, and its ivy-clad towers; Yet strange, when it yields us the greatest delight, It mocks at our gazing, and fades from our sight, Then Autumn succeeds, with its corn and its grain, Its fine mellow fruit, and its rich yellow plain; But like Spring time and Summer, how short is its stay, It drops us the scar leaf and passes away. Then Winter draws nigh, and the leaves disappear, And every green spot grows withered and drear; And the breezes of evening are heavy and chill, And the snow spreads its mantle of fleece o'er the hill; Unlike Spring time or Summer, or Autumn it stays, Through many bleak nights and cold frosty days, Till we tire of its visit, and wish him away, And long for the balmy breezes of May, McDONALD, on Yonge Street, One Hundred and Three, Has a Stock which he wishes the Public to see; Well suited in fabric for cold Winter's trade, And embracing the latest designs that are made; There are Flannels and Blankets, in goodly supply, Which feel thick to the hand and look well to the eye; There are hundreds of Shawls! some styles very rare, The fine, heavy, long, and magnificent square There are Bro. d. Cloths, and Doekings, and Cassimeres too, And Lustras, and Cobourgs, in every fine hue; And a fine stock of Furs, which, at some recent day, Were trapped on the banks of the famed Huron Bay. There are fine Cloaks and Bonnets, and many things more, That McDONALD keeps always on hand at his Store; He would not the rights of another invade, While he seeks for a healthy extension of trade; But if fairness will answer, and bargains repay, Then call at his Warehouse at some early day; He asks but a call, 'tis a modest request, And a glance at his prices will tell all the rest.

THE object of this Advertisement is in part to do away with an erroneous opinion which has long prevailed, viz.—that nothing choice or tasteful can be had in the Dry Goods department on

YONGE STREET.

To the Free and Independent Electors of the City of Toronto.

GENTLEMEN,—I beg leave to announce to you, that it is again my intention to offer myself as a Candidate for your Suffrages at the approaching General Election.

From the period when, in 1844, without solicitation on my part I was put in nomination and returned as one of the Representatives of this City, I have endeavoured to discharge the duties devolving upon me to the best of my ability, regardless of all personal consequences, and if I know myself, without a wish to make the high trust reposed in me, subservient to my private interests. I have now enjoyed this distinguished honour for eight years, and if in that capacity I have faithfully and zealously discharged my duty, I trust I may, without presumption, look for a continuance of that confidence and support, which is the only reward a public man has a right to expect at the hands of his constituents, if he seeks their good and not his own. I ask no other.

I have always striven to promote the interests of this City and of our Common Country, and whilst doing so, though sometimes on the weak side and sometimes on the strong side, I trust that your suffrages will show that in your opinion I have at least endeavoured to be on the right side. I have the honour to be, Gentlemen, Your obedient servant. WM. H. BOULTON. Toronto, Nov., 6, 1851. 15-1f.
