

Following final approval of EAMIP and early in the new fiscal year the communications plan will be reexamined for additions, deletions or more definite commitments.