

2. If the competent institution of a Party requires that a claimant or a beneficiary who resides in the territory of the other Party undergo a medical examination, the liaison agency of the latter Party, at the request of the liaison agency of the first Party, will make arrangements for carrying out this examination according to the rules applied by the liaison agency making the said arrangements and at the expense of the agency which requests the medical examination.
3. On receipt of a detailed statement of the costs incurred, the liaison agency of the first Party will, annually, reimburse the liaison agency of the other Party for the amounts due as a result of applying the provisions of subparagraph 2.

Paragraph 6

Special Provisions Concerning Persons Employed in Canada Under the Commonwealth Caribbean Seasonal Agricultural Workers Program

1. For purposes of applying subparagraph 1(c) of Article VII of the Agreement in respect of a person employed in Canada under the Commonwealth Caribbean Seasonal Agricultural Workers Program under the Immigration Act, 1976 (Canada) or any program of like intent which will replace or supersede that program, the competent institution of Antigua and Barbuda will maintain, for each such person, a record of that person's date of departure from the territory of Antigua and Barbuda and that person's date of return to the territory of Antigua and Barbuda.
2. When, for purposes of determining a person's entitlement to a benefit under the Old Age Security Act, the competent institution of Canada requires the information in the record to which reference is made in subparagraph 1, the liaison agency of Antigua and Barbuda will provide the liaison agency of Canada a certified copy of the record pertaining to that person.
