The Canadian Trade Commissioner Service

Although exporting can appear daunting at times, especially to new exporters, the good news is that you don't have to go it alone. The Canadian Trade Commissioner Service is here to help you expand your business abroad. A network of more than 900 trade commissioners working in Canada and overseas, the Canadian Trade Commissioner Service helps companies succeed in foreign markets by providing timely advice, valuable business intelligence and in-market assistance.

Trade commissioners working in our offices around the world help Canadian companies in the development of their international business, including investigating market prospects, identifying key contacts and providing relevant advice and market intelligence.

If you are thinking today's global economy looks inviting, your Regional Office (RO) of the Trade Commissioner Service can help direct you to the existing products and services that relate to your particular exporting needs. Located in every province, the RO provides a full range of trade development services and assistance to Canadian small and medium-sized enterprises, including one-on-one export help to implement your export strategy; up to date foreign market and industry information; advice on trade missions and trade fairs; and information on trade fairs, missions and events including ser...
