

AGREEMENT
ON BILATERAL COOPERATION
IN INDUSTRIAL RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF CANADA
AND THE GOVERNMENT OF THE STATE OF ISRAEL

THE GOVERNMENT OF CANADA AND THE GOVERNMENT OF THE STATE OF ISRAEL, hereinafter together referred to as the “Parties”;

ANIMATED by a desire on the part of both Parties to nurture and strengthen economic and commercial cooperation for peaceful purposes between Canada and the State of Israel;

RECALLING the Memorandum of Understanding on Economic Cooperation between the Government of Canada and the Government of Israel of 31 March 1992, the Memorandum of Understanding on Bilateral Cooperation in Private Sector Industrial Research and Development Entered Into by the Government of Canada and the Government of Israel of 16 August 1994 and the Agreement on Bilateral Cooperation in Industrial Research and Development between the Government of Canada and the Government of the State of Israel of 27 March 2006 (the “Previous Agreement”);

RECOGNIZING that industrial sector initiatives have been the mainstay of the conduct of business between Canada and the State of Israel in the pursuit of new export opportunities;

RECALLING the Parties’ rights and obligations pursuant to international treaties and conventions relating to intellectual property to which both Canada and the State of Israel are party, in particular the Berne Convention for the Protection of Literary and Artistic Works (Paris Act, 1971), the Paris Convention for the Protection of Industrial Property (Stockholm Act, 1967), and the Agreement on Trade Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights (TRIPS);

RESOLVING to maintain the ongoing effort to identify and facilitate the establishment of joint industrial research and development projects between Canadian and Israeli corporations,
