

PART II
APPLICABLE LEGISLATION

ARTICLE 3

Issuing a Certificate of Detachment

1. In the cases set out in Articles 6 to 9 of the Convention, the Party whose legislation applies shall, on request, issue a certificate of fixed duration certifying that, in respect of the work in question, the employed person and that person's employer or the self-employed person are subject to that legislation. That Party shall send a copy of the certificate to the employed person, that person's employer, or the self-employed person, and the liaison agency or competent institution of the other Party.

2. The consent referred to in Article 7 of the Convention should be requested before the end of the current term of the detachment. If the request for the extension is received after the certificate of detachment expires, the Party that receives the request shall examine the reasons for the delay and, if it determines that the delay is justifiable, shall send the request to the liaison agency or the competent institution of the other Party to obtain consent.
