

further and to share information and experiences concerning the protection and securing of possible targets such as transport systems, information systems, public utilities, and public buildings, including diplomatic premises.

TERRORISM FUNDING

12. We have agreed to pursue measures aimed at depriving terrorists of their sources of finance. We encourage all States to take action in co-operation with other States, to prevent terrorists from raising funds that in any way support terrorist activities, and to explore the means of tracking and freezing assets used by terrorist groups.

CONCLUSION AND GUIDELINES FOR ACTION

13. We are determined as a group to continue to provide leadership on this issue to the international community, using bilateral and multilateral measures and agreements to counter terrorism. We will continue to develop specific, co-operative measures to deter, prevent, and investigate terrorist acts and to bring terrorists to justice. We will take action to implement the guidelines set forth in this declaration, summarized as follows:

- calling on all states to strive to join existing international treaties on terrorism by the year 2000;
- promoting mutual legal assistance and extradition;
- strengthening the sharing of intelligence and information on terrorism;
- pursuing measures to prevent terrorist use of nuclear, chemical and biological materials;
- Urging all States to refuse to make substantive concessions to hostage takers and to ensure those responsible are brought to justice;
- inhibiting the movement of terrorists and enhancing measures to prevent the falsification of documents;
- strengthening protection of aviation, maritime and other transportation systems against terrorism;
- countering terrorist attacks against public facilities and infrastructures;
- depriving terrorists of funds; and,
- increasing counter-terrorism training and assistance.