

to the Court

The Acting Speaker has made very good progress in the consideration of the report of the bill. The Minister of Justice has suggested to me that I might not be too strict, and I am very pleased to do so.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Larkin): I see the House is ready to call it a day.

Some hon. Members: Aye.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Larkin): It being six o'clock, the House will adjourn until tomorrow afternoon.

It is six o'clock, the House will adjourn until tomorrow afternoon. The House will adjourn until tomorrow afternoon.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Larkin): Does the House agree to stand consideration of motion 13 and proceed with the consideration of motions 14 and 15?

Some hon. Members: Aye.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Larkin): We will now call motion 14 in the name of the hon. member for (Ontario).

Mr. A. J. Brown (Ontario) moved: That the House do not pass the bill in its present form, and do a number of amendments to the bill in order to bring it into conformity with the provisions of the bill in its present form.
