

U. S. President, 1885-1889 (Cleveland)

MESSAGE

FROM THE

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES, IN RESPONSE TO

Senate resolution of August 28, 1888, relative to action touching outrages and wrongs committed by Canada upon citizens of the United States.

SEPTEMBER 12, 1888.—Read and referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations and ordered to be printed, omitting papers already in print.

To the Senate:

Responding to the inquiries contained in the subjoined resolution of the Senate of the 28th ultimo, I have the honor to state in reply to the subject first therein mentioned, calling upon the Executive for—

“copies of all communications, if any, addressed by his direction to the Government of Great Britain, remonstrating with that Government against the wrongs and unfair treatment to our citizens by the action of the Canadian Government in refunding to vessels and cargoes which pass through the Welland and other Canadian canals nearly the entire tolls if they are destined to Canadian ports, while those bound for American ports are not allowed any such advantage; and the breach of the engagement contained in the treaty of 1871, whereby Great Britain promised to the United States equality in the matter of such canal transportation; also copies of any demand made by his direction upon Great Britain for the redress of such wrongs, and the replies of Great Britain to such communication and demand,” that I herewith transmit copies of all communications between the Department of State and the United States consul at Ottawa, which are accompanied by copies of the orders of the Canadian officials in relation to the subject inquired of.

Also correspondence between the Department of State and the British minister at this capital, with copies of the documents therein referred to.

I also enclose, as connected therewith, a copy of Executive Document (No. 406, II. R., 50th Congress, 1st session) containing the answer of the Acting Secretary of the Treasury, dated July 23, 1888, in reply to a resolution of the House of Representatives relating to the navigation of the Welland Canal, and the documents thus transmitted comprise the entire correspondence in relation to the subjects referred to in that portion of the resolution of inquiry which is above quoted.
