

51. Mr. A. Please accept my best thanks for the very prompt and liberal settlement of my fire loss of $10.75 in full from the above company which occurred on Friday, 16th inst., four days after the occurrence to my full and entire satisfaction.
52. I will still continue to sell for cash, and no second price, thereby enabling me to offer my customers unusual good value.
53. Trusting by strict application to business, and determined to second my position by offering the best value in this county, I trust not only to retain my present large connection but a larger increase for the future.
54. They approved of the recommendation for the retirement of the Principal from his office, whom they found was desirous of retiring by reason of impaired health.
55. We are not an offensive society, but on the contrary slow to take offence and offer none, act as Christians, and no intoxicating liquor was allowed in our lodges.
56. The cultivation of the soil, the most honorable and independent industry with which men or women could be engaged, being abandoned by those best able to make it pay, impoverishes the country.
57. Not finding the cash box, which was the object of his visit, he took the key of the store from Mr. M's pocket, and repaired thither which place he ransacked pretty well.
58. He hoped the members of the order would make a note of the fact that our present Prime Minister, who had lately visited the R. C. Cathedral in Quebec, and took part in the celebration of high mass, was one of the most shameful pieces of hypocrisy that was ever perpetrated.
59. He begs to draw their attention to the fact that owing to having almost the exclusive sale of books used in the Collegiate Institute enables him to buy largely, and thereby able to give the best discount.
60. We, the undersigned electors of the ward of St. G., having viewed the government of our civic affairs for the past twelve months, the recent exposure of public documents and the failure of securing pure
