

162 A DAUGHTER OF NEW FRANCE

- Courcelles, Daniel de Remy, Seigneur de, arrives in New France, 10
 — winter campaign of, 13
 — fate of expedition of, 19
Coureur de bois, attractive career of the, 97
 — customs of, 98
 — degradation and decline of the, 99
Coutume de Paris, reference to, 58
 Curé, the daily heroic life of the, 69
- DE L'INCARNATION, Mère Marie, on the character of girls sent from France, 33
 De Meulles, Intendant, on the character of the people, 60
 Denonville, Marquis de, requests assistance for St. Ours, 45
 — his opinion of the noblesse, 47
 — advised to set a good example to the habitants, 75
 Dorvilliers, expedition under, from Montreal, 122
 Dress of habitants, 76
 Drunkenness, prevalence of, 103
 Duchesneau, Sieur de, Intendant, 36
- EDUCATION, enduring effect of early, 3
 — difficulties of obtaining an, in New France, 69
 Etienne, Mademoiselle, accompanies girls from France, 31
- FASHION, standard of, at Quebec, 73
- Feudalism, comparison of, in New France and Old, 43
 Fires, methods of extinguishing, 89
 Fontaine, Pierre, arrival of, with party, at Fort Verchères, 135
 — anxiety of wife of, 140
 Fontanges, worn by women of rank, 74
 Fort Orange, French proceed as far as, 19
 Fort Richelieu, de Courcelles' troops at, 15
 Fort Ste Thérèse, conduct of Algonquins at, 16
 French, successful assault on Iroquois by, 117
 Frontenac, Louis de Buade, Comte de, reply of, to envoy of Phips, 106
 — characteristics of, 109
 — not impressed with the methods of Canadian travel, 110
 — summons the three estates, 111
 — rebuked by the king, 112
 — reappointment of, as governor, 113
 — Indians welcome, as guest, 113
 — sings the war song and dances with the Indians, 113
 — remarkable speech of, 116
- Fur trade, importance of the, 95
 — permits granted to the habitants to trade with Indians, 96
- GAUDAIS, Sieur, instructions to, 83
 Girl Scout, the first in the New World, 144