

MONTREAL OFFICERS PLAY BALL LOSE TWO GAMES IN ARMORIES

Cavalry Beat Royal Scots 29 to 15—Queen's Own Win From Victoria Rifles by 25 to 5.

Toronto officers vanquished Montreal officers in their games at the armories Saturday night, Queen's Own defeating Victoria Rifles and Cavalry defeating Royal Scots. Both Toronto teams showed superiority in all branches of the game and won on their merits. In the first game, Victoria Rifles could not hit Muntz and were fortunate to score at all. Some good fielding on Queen's Own's part gave them some runs. Gunn's pitching seemed to just suit the Q.O.R. batters, for they hit the ball to all corners of the armories.

The second game was more even. Although Victoria Rifles are champions of Montreal on Saturday night's play Royal Scots took the stronger team. They gave the Cavalry a battle all the way. They hit and ran the bases well, but were not quite as strong in the field as Cavalry. Both teams hit the ball hard. Peck of Royal Scots looks like a cracking good man. Molson and Ross hit well, while for Cavalry, Winters, Hendry, Yellowless and Meredith all shone with the stick, Hendry having two homers to his credit.

Brewed to Perfection

Cosgrave's famous products are literally brewed to perfection. Purest ingredients—the finest selected malt and hops—with tested spring water—combined in the most approved way by expert brewers. Properly aged and bottled by an up-to-date process that keeps air away from the product until ready to serve. There may be other brews as good as Cosgrave's, but it would take a long time to find them.
