

to such Division. No benefits shall be granted for a less time than one week. All arrears, either for dues or fines, shall, in every case, be deducted from the first payment.

SEC. 4. In case of the death of a Brother entitled to benefits, the sum of not less than £3 15, shall be appropriated as a funeral benefit. The W. P., in the absence of competent relations or friends, shall take charge of the funeral, and keep an account of the disbursements.

SEC. 5. On the death of the wife of a Brother, also beneficial, he shall be entitled to the sum of not less than £2 10 as a funeral benefit.

ARTICLE VII.—OFFENCE.

SEC. 1. Any member who shall offend against these Articles or the By-Laws, shall be subject to be fined, reprimanded, suspended or expelled, as two-thirds of the members present, at any regular meeting, may determine.

SEC. 2. Every member shall be entitled to a fair trial for any offence involving reprimand, suspension, or expulsion; but no member shall be put on trial unless charges, duly specifying his offence, be submitted in writing by a member of the Division.

SEC. 3. When charges have been preferred against a brother in a proper manner, or any matters of grievance between brothers are brought before the Division, they shall be referred to a special committee of five members, who shall, with as little delay as the case will admit, summon the parties, examine and determine the matter in question; and if their decision does not involve the suspension or expulsion of a member, and no appeal be taken from it to the Division, it shall be final, without other action. Should the committee be convinced of the necessity of suspending or expelling a member, they shall submit a motion for the purpose to the Division, for action.

SEC. 4. When a motion for the expulsion or suspension of a member shall have been submitted in due form, it shall
