

I N D E X.

A

ABEKAS, Indians	Vol. I. p. 229
Account of a journey into the western parts of
North America	388
— of Prince Madoe's voyage to Virginia	393
— of the discovery of America by Martin Behaim,
previous to Columbus	395
Adiantum pedatum, Maidenhair	354
Akanzas, an Indian nation	68. 69
— account of their country	92
— their ceremonies on declaring war	99
— their custom of adopting	103
— their custom of making indelible punctures on
the body	107
— their and the other Indians' manner of making
oath	98
— their Manitou or false deity	103
— their proceeding with prisoners	105
— their songs of war	102
Allibamons, Indians in West Florida	226
— their burials	257
— their religious principles	256
Alligators, Indian manner of killing them	281
— torpid in winter	367
— very great ones in the river Mississippi	366
Anchovies caught on the coast of Brezan	2
— not the true Italian anchovies	ibid.
Animal, unknown, with a fine fur, found in the coun-
try of the Missouri	180
Aquelon-Pissas, commonly called Colla-pissas, an Ameri-
can nation	34
Ayakapas, an Indian nation who eat their prisoners	337