Firmer markets abroad; together so of a domestic nature more favorolders, gave us a stronger opening ced a fair amount of local buying, which was of an investment characteristics.

Heron & Co. and induced a fair amount of local buying, some of which was of an investment character. During the session Minneapolis sent advices of an excellent cash demand, and good sales of flour, while New York reported Antwerp a buyer of Manitoba wheat, thus imparting additional strength and carrying prices to a point %c higher than yesterday's latest figures, around which there seemed to be long wheat for sale. Fradstreet's reported exports for the week of wheat and flour equal to 2,293,000 bushels. Market closed firm at the highest point of the day.

Coarse grains opened higher, with a fair volume of business, but sold off sharply shortly after. Later the prices ruled higher under the influence of good local buying induced by the continued light receipts and an improved cash inquiry. Week's exports of corn, 3,174,000 bushels.

Provisions—Opened strong, but met with considerable realizing by longs, which large packers bought freely, and the market displayed a steady undertane all day.

C. W. Gillett to Melady & Co.: Wheat—Liverpool closed %c higher, ow-
