DISSEMINATION OF LIES

Bishops Unite Urging U-Dr. Langry Submits Protest to His Congregation.

Dissemination—perhaps it would be better to say difference of opinion—seems to have developed to somewhat ominous proportions in the Church of England as a result of the proposed federation of Trinity College with the University of Toronto. That such difference of opinion has existed is by no means a new matter, for it has been carried on from point and platform and in the press for the last few weeks. The matter, however, seemingly reached a crisis yesterday, when a circular letter, signed by all the Anglican Bishops of Ontario, was placed in the hands of the various clergy for communication to their charges. The letter strongly urges the federation plan, and was issued as the result of a meeting of the bishops at Trinity College on Thursday night, at which all were present except the Bishop of Ontario, who however, wrote his commendation.

Parade in Morning and Baby Show in Afternoon at the Island, the Attractions

This is the day that organized labor celebrates. It is expected that the parade this morning will see at least 5000 stalwart sons of toil in line. As already announced, the procession will leave Queen's Park at 10 o'clock sharp and proceed via Grosvenor, Yonge, Queen, Spadina, King, York and Lakeshore to the Island ferries. The competition for the best appearing union on parade will evoke spirited rivalry among several of the bodies that have for some time been preparing for the contest. There will also be numerous floats in the parade, illustrating various manufactures. The boiler makers and iron shippers will have a full model of steel girin carrier fourteen feet long in display.

HOW LABOR DAY WILL BE CELEBRATED BY TORONTO UNIONS.

Through the city generally the day will also be observed. This is "Labor Day" at the Dominion Exposition, and the booths have a special holiday matinee today. At Massey Hall the famous Coldstream Guards Band give afternoon and evening concerts. The convention of the Believers in the Attenment will finish to-day at Victoria Hall. There will be vaudeville at Munro's Park to-night. Premier Ross tenders a semi-private reception to members of Lord Lyveden's party of British parliamentarians.

This has excited great curiosity among mothers and young girls generally, and the awards of the judges, who are Controller Loudon, Aid. Dr. Harrison and F. S. Trustar, Dr. Spence, in the three classes, will not be made without much trouble and learned discussion on the relative merits of the many babies who are undoubtedly be entered for the contest. At Hanlan's Point there will be a lacrosse match in the afternoon, and at night a band concert, vaudeville show and a general good time for everybody.

New Move to Break Strike Only Chamberlain Escapes Injunction is Applied For Criticism of the Boer War

London, Sept. 6.—The report of the War Commission is made a party issue by Sir Harry Johnston, who has started a vigorous canvass for capturing the Tories. The Unionists are considering it necessary to defend the War Office against the findings of the commission and a plain reading of the evidence in the case of Chamberlain and the Tories more astute if they would accept joint responsibility for the Boer war. The system of military administration which both political parties have maintained for a long period, and which cannot be reformed without the consent and co-operation of the government and the opposition.

While Unionist Party's Danger of Disruption is Added to, His Position is Strengthened.

New York, Sept. 6.—The Sun's London correspondent says: The meeting of the cabinet, which was to have been held yesterday, was put over and the postponement of all speech or action that can definitely commit them will be the policy of the majority of the Unionist party until the very last moment. Meanwhile every nerve has been strained to save the Unionist party from the disruption which Chamberlain's policy, if persisted in, must bring about. That party, even if it could present an unbroken front to its opponents at the forthcoming election, would find that it needed all its strength to emerge victorious from the contest.
