Claims Woman is Not His Wife Stanley Hallam came up in the police court yesterday on a charge of assault and wife-beating, and was sentenced to 30 days hard labor and to suffer 20 lashes. After receiving his sentence Hallam told the court that the woman he was accused of ill-treating was not his wife. The woman is charged with bigamy and was remanded for a week

INSTALLING NEW SYSTEM. Board of Education Arranges for New Method of Bookkeeping.

A new system of accounting and recording in the books of the board of education is to be introduced at the administration building as soon as the accounts for 1916 are closed. By the new system which is in charge of the deputy city solicitor, it is estimated that the accounts will be condensed to a total of 79 as against a total of 191 by the old system. The new system also arranges that accounts be paid monthly instead of semi-monthly agreement, with the exception of those which must be paid at once in order to comply with contracts or to secure special discount. It is also suggested that estimates of expenditures be furnished monthly to the finance commit-
