Essex, at Ketc	to secure permits to play with an outside team, they are very keen to take a fall out of the Carson-Ramsay aggregation. Hudson, Meeking and Wight are U. of T. students, but Argos will not us the last named in this game. The oarsmen are trailing in the league race, and in an effort to stop their losing streak, which has endured for five consecutive games, they will move Lount up to the forward line and use Glenn Sullivan on the defence. Incidentally, it is within the range of possibility that the Sullivan family will be well represented. Frank will play for the collegsans, and if De La Salle w'n decisively from the U. of T. III. this afternoon, Joe Sullivan may be granted his long-cherished desire of playing with the seniors. This afternoon De La Salle and Varsity III. mect in the first of the home-and-home games to decide the group honors. Each has wo, one game from the other this year. Rey Noble will referee. Guelph, Ont., Jan. 31.—(Special.)—Guelph Juniors registered their first win of the season here tonight when they defeated the Waterloo youngsters in an O.H.A. fixture by the close margin of three to two. Altho the score would indicate that the game was a real interesting one, such was not the case, as neither team showed up to form, and play was slow thruout. Hamel starred for the visitors, while O'Halloran, Smith and Brydges were best for the home team. The teams: Waterloo (2): Position Guelph (3): Maeller. Goal Brydges Hemphill R. defence Kelso Kress.
