COMMITTEE UPON PROVISION FOR WIDOWS AND ORPHANS.

March 31.—A certificate of pension was granted to the Rev. J. S. Smith, upon the usual terms, viz.: the payment of all back premiums.

Dec. 14, 1864.—An application was made for a pension under the certificate of the Rev. J. Woods, lately deceased at Bermuda. The committee deferred their opinion for want of information.

The Secretary submitted a statement shewing that there was the sum of $13800 invested for the benefit of this fund, and about $1000 uninvested.

Jan'y 7, 1865.—The committee came to the unanimous conclusion that the rules laid down by the society for their guidance did not allow them to grant a pension to the orphan of the late Rev. J. Woods, inasmuch as Mr. Woods, by infringing the 11th rule had forfeited his claim.

April 1.—Several clergymen who had omitted to pay their premiums at the appointed time, were re-admitted upon the payment of a fine.
