Says Trade Board Meet that the boat was running and carry-Greatest Move Since Confederation

WOODSTOCK, Oct. 22-At no time since Confederation had Canadians seemed so earnest to solve their national poolems, particularly those pertaining to the Maritime Provinces, said E. W. Beatty, president of the C. P. R., here tonight, in referring to the meeting of the Canadian Board of Trade sessions, which have just concluded at Saint John.

Mr. Beatty made the statement at a public meeting of welcome held in the Court House under the auspices of the Board of Trade, on whose Invitation President Beatty attended the meeting. The meeting was well attended and besides an address by President Beatty, there were brief remarks by Sir Herbert Holt, Grant Hall and F. W. Molson. Mr. Beatty made the statement at a feature of the dealings of the company.

R. had business relations none were more friendly and congenial than those existing in New Brunswick. He indicated that a common interest policy between the C. P. R. and the communities which it serves has always been a feature of the dealings of the company.

Mr. Beatty said he had heard a greatdeal about Maritime rights and he con-sidered it very fitting that the newly organized Canadian Board of Trade should choose its first meeting place in Saint John, the place where the agitation for Maritime rights had been so earnestly urged. He also considered together the leading business men of Canada to discuss the Maritime Provgates had deliberated the problems in a federation had Canadians seemed so
