HARBOR REVENUE BREAKS RECORD

More Than $31,000 Collected During March—Argument for Increased Facilities on East Side of Harbor.

Harbor revenue at the port of St. John for the month ending today was higher than ever before in the history of the port, totalling about $31,000, or more than $4,000 greater than during the same month last year. The previous high record was $26,000, collected during one of the war-time months.

To several causes is ascribed the big increase in earnings this month. In the past place the traffic through the port in all classes of freight has been heavy—much heavier than was anticipated earlier in the year. The traffic in flour has been particularly noticeable. Again, the increase in the wharfage rate on grain from five to six cents late last year, and the application of the charges on general cargo from the long ton of 2,240 to the standard ton of 2,000 pounds, had effect.

Increased Facilities Needed.
Commissioner Bullock expressed keen satisfaction at the condition of trade this morning. He said that the steamship people were particularly pleased with the despatch of cargoes from the wharves on the eastern side of the harbor. The busy month, however, was in his opinion a potent argument for an increase in the government facilities with adequate railway connection on the east side. He referred to the plans for the erection of two deep-water terminals at Reed's Point, and expressed the conviction that a pier extending inland with berths on either side would fill the bill better than building two wharves facing on the harbor. While the former plan might limit some of the railway yardroom, a spur line might be run down the full length of the pier to serve both berths at the same time and adequate shed room could be provided at the head of the pier. In his opinion this plan would take care of a traffic rush better than the other.

WM. R. DAILEY DEAD IN SAN FRANCISCO

Wife was Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Nannary of Carleton.

Mrs. Theresa Hansen, 28 Douglas avenue, today received a telegram from her niece, Mrs. W. R. Dailey, announcing the death of her husband William R. Dailey at his home in San Francisco, Cal. Mr. Dailey was one of the leading theatrical managers of the Pacific Coast and had been actively engaged in his occupation until recently. News of his death will be heard with regret by many citizens in this city. Besides his wife, who was formerly Miss May Nannary, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Nannary of Carleton, he is survived by one son, Kenneth, who is also engaged as a theatrical manager in Washington, and by one brother.

In his younger days Mr. Dailey was an engineer and helped lay railroads through southern California and Mexico. He then became interested in theatricals and for many years owned and traveled with companies in all parts of the United States. In 1904 he brought a stock company to this city and presented a repertoire of plays at the Opera House. His last bill the season was "A Night Off" and those taking part were: Carl Eckstrom, Chauncey Southern, George C. Robinson, Nathaniel Jelemy, W. R. Dailey, May Nannary, Eleanor Carr, Kate Blanche and Grace Hadsell. He sent another stock company here at a later date, while he traveled in the States with a popular drama.

During the last few years he remained in the theatrical business on the Pacific Coast where he was well known and exceptionally popular.
