CITY HALL TRYING TO ADJUST WAGE DISPUTE

That the city of St. John should endeavor with all possible speed to bring about a settlement of the dispute now existing between the C. P. R. and the Freight Handlers' Union was decided at a meeting of the common council yesterday afternoon. To further a settlement, and with the idea of relieving the serious situation that has arisen, the council passed a resolution to the effect that the commissioners should act as mediators in an attempt to bring about an agreement. This was moved by Mr. Jones and seconded by Mr. Thornton. It was also agreed to invite the heads of the two factions to meet at City Hall this afternoon at 3 o'clock when, should the invitation be accepted, the situation will be gone over with the city officials.

Mr. Fisher said that he could not support this motion, as he would like to see some intimation from the various parties that they wanted city hall to act. He thought the commissioners would be butting in.

Mr. Jones said that this was vitally important to the city and suggested that the city fathers should not stand on their dignity.

Mr. Fisher—"I am not standing on my dignity, but I question whether the move is a good one or not."

Mr. Thornton suggested it could do no harm and might do a lot of good. Mr. Bullock concurred in this sentiment.

Mr. Fisher, however, moved as an amendment that the matter be referred to the mayor, as he had acted before in these matters, and it would be a better way to get at the matter. This amendment found no seconder and the motion passed. Mr. Jones suggested that the meeting be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Peterboro, Nov. 26.—In the police court, Guise Bagley, a local lawyer, was fined $500 on a charge of having liquor in his possession, contrary to the Inland Revenue Act. On two other charges, one of operating a still and the other of keeping liquor for sale, he was committed for trial.

F. D. Kerr conducted the defense, and Crown-Attorney Tatton represented the crown. Bagley pleaded guilty.
