"BOLDISM," A NEW WORD

Far more than Germany has gained by her mischief-making propaganda in at Rothesay to Miss Mabel Blanche Curvarious countries, she is losing by the rie, daughter of J. R. Currie, of the Comexposure of such propaganda. For in- mercial Institute. The ceremony took stance, we are now aware that much of place at 6.80 o'clock and Rev. D. J. Macthe mysterious antagonism of recent Pherson, of this city, tied the knot. The years toward the United States, in sev- bride was dressed in white with bridal ment funds to inflame the readers of sensational Japanese newspapers.

There has come into common use throughout the world a new word "Boloism," that will stand for generations to come in testimony against German official methods. The German foreign office, using its embassies and legations and its army of agents and spies, was pushing a propaganda, through the corrupt use of large sums of money, in neutral countries and extending it from the neutrals to the Allies. The man Bolo (executed on Tuesday) while posing as a loyal Frenchman and a Paristan man of affairs (who had originated in Turkey or somewhere on the eastern Mediterranean coast), was in point of fact a German agent. He was in close fouch with several prominent journalists and politicians at Paris; and one of Clemenceau's immediate tasks as prime minister is to secure the punishment of high-priced Frenchmen who were in the Bolo conspiracy. From New York Bolo conducted negotiations with the aid of German money for the purchase of Parisian newspaper support, the plan being a subtle undermining of French confidence and courage. "Boloism," in South Amrica, in France, in England, in Spain, in Scandinavia, in the United States, in Japan, has all been alischievous; but all of it has begun to react even more harmfully against Germany's honor and reputation. Meanwhile the new word "Boloism" is fixed in all languages and carries in condensed form a chapter of loathsome history. The climax is in Russia.

The garrison regiment will be a home battalion for home duty and will take over the duties now carried on by the special service company and home guard unit in Carleton.
