LOCAL NEWS

THE MARKET.
The city market will be closed on Saturday, Dominion Day, but will be open on Friday evening.

FIELD AMBULANCE
No. 8 Field Ambulance will meet in uniform this evening at 8 o'clock. Helmets and clothing worn in the coronation parade must be returned.

ST. PAUL'S WON.
In a baseball match at Westfield on Saturday evening between the Boy Scouts of St. Paul's and Trinity, the former won, 27 to 7.

CHURCH AND SOCIAL QUESTIONS.
Exchanging pulpits with Rev. H. D. Marr, Rev. G. A. Ross preached an able sermon on the relation of the church to social questions, in Portland Methodist church last evening.

THE BATTLE LINE.
At Madeira, on Saturday, S. S. Ereira, Capt. Parry, bunkered and proceeded. She is bound from Sunderland for Buenos Ayres for orders. S. S. Trebia, Capt. Siatz, left for Newport, Swansea and Brazil, sailed from Bordeaux on Sunday.

NEW NOTES IN CIRCULATION.
The new $1 bills, which were received at the Savings Bank from Ottawa on Friday, were distributed to the banks this morning and will be in circulation throughout the city this afternoon. The issue was a small one.

ST. STEPHEN'S PICNIC.
About 400 left the depot at nine o'clock Saturday for Rotissage to attend the annual picnic of St. Stephen's Presbyterian church Sunday school. The party indulged in the usual sports and spent a very enjoyable time.

GLAD TO SEE IT.
City employees are laying an asphalt sidewalk in King street east between the court house corner and the registry office. It will replace the old wooden one. Provision has been made, too, for a wider walk than was the case.

DRIVE TO BEN LOMOND.
The members of the New Brunswick Pharmaceutical Society will have their annual drive to the Ben Lomond House on Wednesday. Buckboards will leave the society's rooms at 10 a.m. In the afternoon a ball game and sports will be held and the return to the city will be made early in the evening.

A GOOD TIME ASSURED.
The Field Ambulance non-commissioned officers of No. 8 section in camp at Sussex have arranged for a rally time tomorrow evening when they will entertain the officers of their section under canvas with them, as well as a number of other officers of their mess tent on the grounds. A programme of toasts, speeches, etc., will be given, as well as a round of musical and literary numbers.

THE M. D. S. ALEAK.
Leaking at the rate of a foot an hour in spite of the action of the pumps, the three-masted St. John steamer, M. D. S. Captain Gale, was towed into Boston on Thursday, and hauled on the South Boston flats by the tug Betsy Ross, which picked her up off the Graves. The vessel was laden with 74,378 feet of spruce scantling and 150,446 feet of spruce plank, and was five days on the passage.

GOES OVER TILL JULY 6.
Before Justice McKeown in chambers this morning, the case of Manford Vaughan vs. Judson P. Mosher, was continued. Dr. H. E. Gilmore, of St. Martin's, gave evidence as to the injuries, and the treatment applied. Mrs. Vaughan, mother of the deceased, in her evidence, said that in a conversation with Mr. Mosher on December 26, he had said that he would settle the case was adjourned until July 6. A. A. Wilson, K. C., is for the prosecution; J. B. M. Baxter, K. C., and J. King Hazen, for the defence.

WAS STRANDED.
Between 11 and 12 o'clock last night, Policeman McLeod found Roy Green, a lad 11 years of age, wandering about Water street, and he did not give a satisfactory account of himself, he was taken to the Central Station. In the police court this morning he said that he lived in Kingsville, and that he came to the city yesterday morning to look things over. He spent all his money, and did not have enough to get home with. His people were telephoned for and they came to the city and took the lad home.

A GAME TOMORROW.
The postponed game to have been played between the M. R. A. and I. C. R. teams in the Commercial League this evening could not be arranged, but M. R. A. and Brock & Paterson teams will play tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock on the Marston grounds. The lineup will be as follows:

TWO HEIRS TO EVANS WEALTH DIE IN STATES

This is Estate in Which St. John People Are Interested

BORE THE SAME NAME

Mrs. Elizabeth Evans of Malden and Daughter-in-Law, of West-cry, Pass Away—Former Was Next to Millionaire's Widow, The Nearest Kin

A Boston special to the Times says:—"Two members of the Evans' family of St. John county, were buried in Malden today. Mrs. Elizabeth Evans, aunt of the late millionaire Robert D. Evans, and next to the widow his nearest kin, died on Saturday at home of her daughter, Mrs. Mary A. Ambrose, of Malden. She was aged 82, and a native of New Brunswick.

"By a strange coincidence her daughter-in-law also named Elizabeth Evans, died in West-cry, N. B., on the same day.

"The Malden woman took care of Robert D. Evans during his term of life. She was the widow of Richard Evans. The West-cry woman was the widow of John Evans. St. John people are interested in the Robert Evans' vast estate, depositions regarding the heirs to which were recently taken in that city."

"STEWARDESS" WAS MAN

Strange Development in Connection With Fatal Fire on Steamer in Which St. John Woman Died

The Times last week told of two deaths in a fire on board a steamer at Boston. Later it was learned that Mrs. Elizabeth McNeil, one of those who lost her life, was a St. John woman. There is another development.

A Boston despatch now says:—"Following the funeral of Harriet Kelly, 'Stewardess' of the steamer Governor Andrew, who perished when the steamer was destroyed by fire on Sunday, the discovery has been made that, although believed to be a woman for thirty years, this was a mistake. She was a man, named Harriet Kelly, a resident of Boston and Wollasley, has been found among Miss Kelly's effects.

"Harriet lived as a trusted servant in many well known and Back Bay families, performing all the duties of a housemaid and enjoying the usual freedom of women in the household. The mother and father of this strange person are living in Wolverhampton, Staffordshire, England.

"Harriet Kelly was born in Wolverhampton and reared and educated as a girl. When twenty-three years old Harriet Kelly came to Boston as the servant of John Fleming, of Brookline. False sex was never suspected. Although many male admirers Harriet seldom accepted their advances seriously. Harriet shaved regularly, but that habit was believed to be only 'peculiarity'."

CHIEF CLARK AWAY

Some of the Business to be Taken up at Police Chiefs' Convention in Ottawa This Week

Chief of Police W. W. Clark left last evening for Ottawa to preside over the sessions of the Chief Constables' Association of Canada, of which he is president. Included in the business will be the reading of the following papers:

The Twentieth Century Policeman, and how to retain his services, Chief Sleight, Brandon; The White Slave Traffic, Col. Sherwood, and Chief Campeau, Montreal; Offensive Weapons, Inspector Duncan, Toronto; Extradition, J. E. Rogers, superintendent Ontario Provincial Police; Finger Prints Demonstration, Inspector Foster, Ottawa; Juvenile Delinquency, Chief Detective Carpenter, Montreal. Short, interesting papers by the following are also expected: Parole Officer, Archibald, Chief Langley, Victoria; Chief Chamberlin, Vancouver, and Chief Mackie, Calgary.

The meetings will begin tomorrow morning.

TO SELL THE REAL ESTATE

Application in Probate Court Re Count de Bury Property—Will of J. S. Gilbert

In the probate court today in the matter of the estate of Count R. V. de Bury, a hearing having been had in the matter of passing the accounts of the executors and trustees and it appearing that there is a deficiency in the personality to pay the debts the executors and trustees, Edward T. C. Knowles and Thomas P. Regan, file a petition for license to sell the real estate. A citation was issued returnable July 3 at noon to which date the further hearing on the passing of the accounts was adjourned.

The will of James Simonds Gilbert was proved. He gives all his estate both real and personal to his sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson, and nominates her as executrix. She was accordingly sworn in as such. Real estate, subject to further particulars, is valued for the present at $16,000; personal estate under $29,000. L. P. D. Tilly is proctor.

POLITICAL RUMORS

Frederick Mall: It is said that the Tories of Sunbury and Queens are urging Premier Hazen to resign from local politics and contest the united counties at the next Federal election against Col. McLean. It is also rumored that Parker Glazier will not offer for re-election in Sunbury at the next local election and that the new man will be Luther Smith, of Blissville.

RUNAWAY PLUCKILY STOPPED

A double seated buggy, with a lady in the back seat stood in St. Andrew's street last evening, when the horse took fright and ran away. The lady's son rushed at its head but was knocked down and run over, being bruised and considerably cut about the head. The horse turned up Sydney street at a mad gallop, the lady crying loudly for help. All attempts to stop him failed till near Princess street, when Elmer A. Belding ran out at great personal risk and by a good fortune, secured as he ran a firm grip on the reins.

Though lifted from his feet and almost thrown, he held on and finally pulled the team up in Princess street. The lady was hysterical, but was greatly relieved when her son, despite his injuries came running to meet her. His head was cut and bleeding, but his anxiety for his mother's safety made him forget his own injuries.
