Notes and Comments.
—A family living in Combs House, Bourton, France, consists of six sisters, whose combined ages amount to 475 years. The oldest is 85 years old and the youngest is 75.

—An exchange says a London doctor says he has proof that man did not come from apes but that apes came from man. The doctor says that the way to do a question for us to monkey with.

—Theophilus Cleveland, O., was notified that there was a girl going on in one section of the city. When they arrived there was nothing to be seen except the remains of a case of pop bottles whose contents had exploded.

—As a Christmas present to the inmates of a home for crippled children in Chicago, 18 members of a local barbers' union trimmed each child's hair according to the latest style. There are several hundred children in the home and the work took a whole day.

—In Corning, N. Y., the business men of the city arranged to have Santa Claus enter the city in an airplane, from which he would drop down presents for the good children who were underneath waiting for them.

—Wm. Blank, of Manhattan, Ill., when visiting in Chicago, was afraid of being held up, and asked the sergeant at one of the police stations in this city to be his body guard over the night. In all he had $45 and a watch valued at $40, which were placed in the safe until he left.

—At Stamford, Conn., Tuesday night, while walking to their home in a driving rain, Giuseppe Maturo and Giuseppe Gaudino had their feet frozen. The latter became entangled in a live electric light wire which had fallen to the sidewalk. They were walking barefooted. The bodies, badly burned, were found by pedestrians.

—The chime on the new municipal tower in Springfield, O., will not ring at Christmas. It is not yet ready to be set by flashes of red and white lights in the globe at the top of the tower. For the first quarter there will be one flash for each hour, for the next quarter two flashes for each hour, for the next quarter three flashes for each hour, and for the last quarter four flashes for each hour. The tower is lighted for the number of the hour. Between the quarters the white light will burn steadily.

—The municipality of Buenos Ayres has just received from the Compañia de Construcciones Modernas to build ten thousand houses for employees and workmen. The houses are to be built in cheap broom, chagras, plant and jewelry in general of a palatial nature. Most of the houses are to be built for the poor women who had gone to the shops in automobiles, and in some cases thousands of dollars.

—After wandering thirty-six hours in big water mats under the streets of Suburbville, Ohio, unable to make his way for help, a man, aged thirty, was rescued by a fire engine. The man, who is now three years old, an employee at the Carnegie Steel Plant, was rescued at night, Wednesday, from the entrance at the river bank and was unable to find his way. He was found by a fire engine which had crawled into the river bank and was unable to find his way.

—The audience which attended the performance of "Lohengrin" at the Royal Opera, Berlin, Tuesday, started by the police agents of the city, when a man, who was naked, burst into the stalls from a side entrance, climbed over the orchestra barrier and started the motions of conducting the orchestra. Attendees rushed up and hastily by the orchestra barrier and started the motions of conducting the orchestra. Attendees rushed up and hastily by the orchestra barrier and started the motions of conducting the orchestra. Attendees rushed up and hastily by the orchestra barrier and started the motions of conducting the orchestra.
