ation day proceedings at the court house, Saturday, were pervaded by the usual good feeling. Sheriff Sterling was the recipient of a hearty vote of thanks, moved by Mr. Black and seconded by Mr. Thompson. The official figures are: Black, 3,368; Howe, 3,295; Pinder, 3.288; Pitts, 3,248; Thompson, 2,334; Whitehead, 2,302; Anderson, 2,280; Coburn, 2,227. The number of votes polled were: 5,639; Mr. Black's majority over Thompson, 1,034. In 1892, the defeat of the government ticket was attributed to a religious frenzy, which the sober second thought of the people was to have changed at the first opportunity. That has come and the opposition majority has been more than doubled, and now the government party put down their defeat solely to influence of Alex. Gibson. While it is true that Mr. Gibson is the most influential man in the county, yet he is not such an egotist as to presum to control an election in York. His
