Justice Barry presiding. Three criminal cases will be heard at this session, and a large number of civil cases.
Attorney General Hazen appeared

His Honor, in charging the Grand Jury, congratulated them on their attendance, and thanked them for their assistance in the administration of justice.

His Honor pointed out to them that they could investigate other matters aside from preferring indictments. He said that if they had any representations to make he would place the same before the proper authorities.

His Honor then presented the indictment against John W. Allen, commissed on several different charges of obtaining money and goods under false pretences.

At 11:25 o'clock the jury retired and at 12:10 returned a true bill on all counts.

His Honor then presented the indictment against John S. Seege, commissed on two charges of assault. The jury retired at 12:15 and at five minutes to one returned no bill on both counts.

Foreman Jones, on behalf of the jury, handed His Honor a written presentment, asking that the work of lighting and heating the jury rooms

RIOTING IN WALES BECOMING SERIOUS

Cardiff, Wales, Nov. 22.—The disorders in connection with the strike of the Welsh colliers in the Rhondda Valley are becoming serious. The rioters have attacked the houses of the mine officials, held up and searched trains, stormed the signs boxes and keeping the signal men prisoner while this was going on, and have threatened other outrages.

There was a fierce conflict last night between rioters and the police at Tonypanny which was not quelled until the troops were summoned. Several policemen were severely injured.

NURSE KNOWN HERE WEDS MILLIONAIRE

Miss Margaret Donohue of P. E. Island, Who Formerly Lived in St. John, Married to Sen. M'Nichol of Philadelphia

Boston, Nov. 22.—In Brooklyn early this morning, State Senator P. J.
McNichol of Philadelphia, took as his bride Miss Margaret Donohue, a pretious nurse, formerly of St. John.
It was the culmination of a romantic love affair, which had its beginnings in a Philadelphia hospital.

According to Brookline friends of Miss Donohue, she first met her millionaire husband during a visit to his home in Philadelphia. She was then making a visit to the hospital. So quietly was the wedding planned that none but the immediate friends of Miss Donohue and the groom's brother, D. F. McNichol, were let into the secret. Senator McNichol and his brother motored away from the Hotel Touraine at the church at a very early hour. At the rectory the church the newspaper men failed to find any information concerning the early morning nuptials.

Rev. Father McLaughlin was not at home this forenoon and the name of the officiating clergyman could not be learned. However, it is said that a priest from St. John, State Senator P. J. McNichol of Philadelphia, is a Republican leader; he is also a subway builder and a millionaire. Miss Donohue was formerly head nurse of the Philadelphia General Hospital, but with whom she has been living for the last six months at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Hooper of Cypress street, Brookline, was bridesmaid and Mr. Hooper was best man.

Miss Donohue, who is about 35 years old, received her training as a nurse in a large hospital in Philadelphia, and then came to St. John. During her service in this hospital, it is said, she met Senator McNichol, and the acquaintance ripened into friendship and eventually into love. Miss
