

PEOPLE INVESTIGATION WAS CONTINUED LAST EVENING Chief Clark Again on Stand—One Officer Found the Door of a Dairy Open and Took a Drink of Milk—Evidence Deals with Many Incidents.

Com. McLellan continued the enquiry into the police department last evening and Chief Clark was on the stand throughout the evening. It developed that an officer finding the door of a dairy open had entered one night, and feeling dry after a search for a burglar had taken a drink of milk. It was also shown that the commission had ordered the removal of a table from the police station on which the men played dominoes and ate their lunches, because he had evidence that the men cut their besta before 6.30 in the morning, and went to the station to play dominoes for 15 or 20 minutes before going off duty. The chief reiterated that statistics would show that the St. John police force would compare favorably with the force of any city in Canada or the United States, and admitted giving qualified recommendations to Marshall, McCollum, Hughes and other officers after they left the force. A large crowd of spectators attended the hearing, and some of the questions and answers provoked laughter which was hastily quelled by the constables. The city recorder and Daniel Mullin, K. C. were present. The commissioner asked the chief if he had heard, prior to the commission's private investigation, of Campbell being suspected of taking "wet" and "dry" five dollar bills, lumber from Haley's and from the engine house alley, and a brigshaw from the Eastern Steamship Co.'s wharf; to all of which questions the answer was no. Q.—Did you hear that this officer stole some things from the police station, and took it to your barn for your use? A.—I think he took an old bucket to my barn; I told him he ought to have brought it back. Q.—Do you hear that this officer stole the chains of the safety valve on the boiler in the police station? (Laughter.) A.—There was trouble with Janitor Earle over it, I think I did not consider it a serious matter. Continuing the chief said Sgt. Campbell had been suspended twice, once because he was reported for shovelling snow off his (the chief's) sidewalk. He did not remember that Sgt. Baxter had reported Campbell for shovelling snow on his sidewalk. Q.—Why did you send Baxter to the North End two months later? A.—Because it was promotion. He would have less work there. Q.—Did Baxter report the officers who took the staff out of Jackson's store? A.—I think it was him, but am not sure. The officers admitted they took the goods, and that Mr. Jackson gave them permission, Mr. Jackson confirmed this. Q.—Why were the officers suspended? A.—Pending enquiry. Q.—The enquiry took place within twenty-four hours, and the men were suspended three or four days? A.—That may be. The chief thought some of the officers were good and hardworking men. One of the officers had been accused of taking a cup of coffee in a restaurant, and charging the restaurant the bill. This officer was dismissed for conduct unbecoming an officer. He considered the officer was a good natured man, but it was unfortunate that he had got mixed up in such a way, but thought it better to let him go. Continuing, the chief said Marshall had been a good, faithful officer, but had made a mistake. Everybody was liable to make a mistake. One witness at the investigation thought it was like After Marshall was dismissed he told the other officers that he was sorry to lose Marshall and warned them to keep out of scraps. He told the officers not to talk too much outside, but come to him with any criticism they had to make, or information about the force. Q.—Who brought the charge against Marshall? A.—I think you did—I heard you were going around looking for evidence. Q.—Do you remember the charge brought by Ervin? A.—Yes. The officer had used some nasty words. Q.—Do you remember that Marshall said he would do six months for him? A.—Yes. Q.—Do you remember making any statement as to what you thought of Golin or Perry? A.—No. Q.—Do you remember saying to the men in the station that if some of them had larger mouths their boots would come up through them? A.—Yes. Q.—Who did you refer to? A.—Golin. He talked of things outside when he should have come to me. Q.—Did it not appear peculiar to you that you should dismiss a man and then deplore his loss before all the other officers? A.—There are three or four questions in that. Q.—You warned the men that night against taking drinks or cigars from anybody or entering restaurants? A.—Yes. Q.—Did you tell Golin he had just come from such a place? A.—I have no recollection. Q.—Do you believe the force strictly adheres to the rule that no man shall accept rewards or pay from anybody without the Chief's permission in writing? A.—They may accept a cigar or a cup of coffee. When they are sent on extra duty it is by my orders and they get paid by verbal order. That was the practice before my time and I do not know. Q.—Is it possible for the permanent officers to draw money from both the city and Exhibition Association for work from 7 to 7? A.—The men get paid for extra time at the exhibition grounds. We swap off with the special officers. Q.—Could men draw wages from the city and Exhibition Association for the same hours of duty? A.—I don't think so. Q.—Do you think it possible? A.—Anything is possible. Some time ago I collected the money from the Exhibition Association and paid the man. The Safety Board asked me to discontinue this practice, and since then the men have collected their extra pay themselves, otherwise they would not get it. Other Charges. The Chief remembered that he had been made that Perry had entered the Bralley Drug Company's premises, and taken some pipes. Q.—Did you get any of those pipes? A.—Yes. The pipelier gave me some to compare with. Q.—Did you get any others? A.—No. Q.—How about the Olive pipe? A.—Oh! The Commissioner then asked a number of questions in connection with the investigation of Cavanaugh's charge against Perry in regard to the Bralley Drug Co. Q.—Did you use Detective Killen in this investigation? A.—Yes. Q.—Did he go in disguise at such times? A.—Oh, he might have changed his hat. The Commissioner—Can you produce records of investigations held by you in the last ten years? A.—I think you have them. Q.—I've never seen them. I want records of testimony at investigations of Cronin and Bralley Drug Co. affairs? A.—I will bring them. Q.—Where did Olive get the pipe? A.—My impression is he got it from Perry. Q.—And where did Perry get it? A.—I don't know. Q.—Did it develop at the investigation? A.—I think in his evidence he said he got it from his brother, in Moncton, while on vacation? Q.—Did you find out to your satisfaction where he got the pipe? A.—His brother swore he gave him a pipe. Q.—Did you have a charge brought against Mr. Perry for going into Spear's? A.—I have no recollection. Q.—Was there a charge against Perry for going into the Jardine building? A.—Yes. My recollection is the door was found open. Q.—Was there a charge against Perry for going into a dairy? A.—Perry found the dairy open one night, and took a drink of milk. The chief reiterated that he believed the St. John force would compare favorably with the force of any city in Canada or the United States. Q.—Would you compare it with New York? A.—The St. John force is much better. "It's not perfect," added the Chief. "Of course they violate some rules and regulations. But generally they are careful." Q.—Do they obey the rule about not gossiping with one another or citizens while on duty? A.—When they meet at the end of their beats they talk over matters of duty. Q.—What would you say if officers came here and swore they ignored the rules? A.—That they needed a dressing down. The investigation then veered into the instruction to the force in regard to making arrests, and the case of a man who was arrested for wandering around town at night. The man came up, and who was also charged with vagrancy. A.—Can a man be arrested for wandering about the streets and not giving an account of himself. Q.—I don't want to give an opinion. Q.—Did you say it was an illegal arrest? A.—Not as you did in a case at the police court—in public. I knew the man was not a vagrant. Afterwards I cautioned the officers in the station to be careful in the matter of arrests. Q.—Was the officer who made the arrest present then? A.—No; he was on duty. Q.—Did you say if it hadn't been for you and Jenkins, the city would have been sued for damages. A.—I may have. Q.—What you said to your officers you consider confidential? A.—Yes. Q.—You have considerable confidence in the force? A.—I hope not. Q.—Have you men ever been in the habit of leaving their beats to play cards? A.—I got rid of four men for that years ago. Q.—Have you any card players left? A.—If six men admitted that they had left their beats and sat into a poker game for two hours, what would you think? I'd think the sergeants were lax. Q.—What about the chief? A.—He can't be everywhere. Q.—Owing to the size of the beats, would it be possible for the men to be off their beats for two hours without being found out by sergeants? A.—I don't think so. They might be off an hour. Q.—Do the men go off duty fifteen or twenty minutes before 6.30 in the morning to play dominoes? A.—I don't think so. Q.—Why were the table taken out of the stationhouse the other day? A.—That is what I would like to know. Q.—Did they play dominoes on the table? A.—Yes, and they ate their lunches there too, sometimes. Q.—Why were the table by order of the commissioner. Q.—Did you ask the reason? A.—No. In reply to further questions the chief admitted he had given recommendations to officers who had been dismissed or resigned from the force, and said that according to reports they had profited by their mistakes and were making good in other positions. He did not know that because a man had made a mistake he was wholly bad. In his recommendations he had given an account of the cir-

A MESSAGE FROM A WOMAN TO WOMEN Every Woman Should Take "Fruit-a-tives"

Lakelet, Ont., May 12th, 1911. "Kindly publish this letter of mine if you think it will benefit other women who might be afflicted with the disease known as 'Nerves' or severe Neuritis. This Nervousness brought on the most violent attacks of Sick Headache, for which I was constantly taking doctors' medicine without any permanent relief. Constipation was also a source of great trouble to me and for 'wax' Doctor said 'I would have to take medicine all my life,' but 'Fruit-a-tives' banished all these troubles and now I am a well woman. Before taking 'Fruit-a-tives,' I was constantly troubled with what is commonly known as 'Nerves' or severe Neuritis. This Nervousness brought on the most violent attacks of Sick Headache, for which I was constantly taking doctors' medicine without any permanent relief. Constipation was also a source of great trouble to me and for 'wax' Doctor said 'I would have to take medicine all my life,' but 'Fruit-a-tives' banished all these troubles and now I am a well woman. Q.—You said you paid every man you saw for 'wax' or another. Q.—Suppose Campbell swore you never paid him anything? A.—Campbell did look after my horse, and he and his family had the use of it. It became a joke that the chief ought to get a horse of his own. Sometimes he attended to my furnace—five minutes work a day. Q.—Did you ever swear at Earle, or the time you fell off the horse? A.—Yes, I never profanely, though I'm no better than anybody else. Q.—Would you recommend Campbell for a position of trust? A.—I have told you repeatedly that when Campbell was on the force I believed in him, and he was a prominent and honest officer. Since your investigation some things have come up. I would mention that you said Campbell stole some planks from the engine house alley. The Commissioner—I never said he stole the planks. I said he was suspected of doing so. The enquiry was then adjourned till Friday at 7.30.

OBITUARY. Mrs. Jacob Meyer. The death of Mrs. Jacob Meyer, aged sixty-two years, occurred at the General Public Hospital, on Wednesday, October 13th, 1913. Mrs. Meyer had not been in the best of health for some time and had been under the care of Dr. W. W. Ferris, a prominent Boston physician, and a personal friend of the Meyer family, was sent for. After a consultation with Doctor Emery, who was called in to see the case, an operation was decided upon. Doctor Gareau, of Montreal, who, a few months ago, successfully operated on a similar case of Connaught, was called here. On Saturday afternoon last at five o'clock Dr. Gareau, assisted by Doctors Perrin and Emery, performed an operation. The operations was considered a success, and Mrs. Meyer was considerably improved for a while. However, complications set in and she succumbed to her trouble early yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. Mrs. Meyer, who was of Jewish persuasion, was an extremely charitable and beloved lady, and performed very many acts of charity among her own people, and will be greatly missed, not only by the members of the Jewish faith, but by a large number of her personal friends and friends of the family. A large number of telegrams of sympathy were received from out of town friends, and many floral tributes were sent to the former home of the deceased, testifying to the esteem in which she was held. Mrs. Meyer is survived by her sorrowing husband, also by three sons and two daughters. The sons are Louis B. Meyer, of Boston, who is extensively engaged in the theatrical business in Haverhill, Boston, Lawrence and Philadelphia. Dr. W. Meyer, of Quebec and St. John, and Jerry G. Meyer, of Quebec. The daughters are Mrs. L. S. Kominsky, of this city, and Mrs. Reider, of Montreal. All the members of the family were at the bedside of their mother at the time of her death. The funeral, which was of a strictly private nature, was held Tuesday evening, and interment took place in the Jewish cemetery.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE PARISH OF SIMONDS: Ladies and Gentlemen: At the request of a large number of the electors of the Parish of Simonds, we are in the field as Candidates for the office of Councillor. The important developments taking place in this county will endeavor, if elected, to give prompt attention and support to all measures making for the advancement of the County. Railway Extension and Improvement of Highways, especially will be given the greatest consideration, as will also the Conservation of our County Institutions. THICK, GLOSSY HAIR, FREE FROM DANDRUFF. Girls! Try it! Your hair gets soft, fluffy and luxuriant at once. If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine. Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots fatten, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast. If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a 25-cent bottle of Knovlon's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made. We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair, and lot of it, that you should use Knovlon's Danderine. It eventually why not now?

CARD. St. John, N. B., October 14th, 1913. TO THE ELECTORS OF THE PARISH OF ST. MARTINS: Ladies and Gentlemen: At the request of a number of the electors of this Parish I offer myself as a candidate for the office of Councillor for the Parish of St. Martins at the ensuing election. If elected I shall do my utmost to serve the interests of the Parish in general and of the electors in particular. Having had several years previous experience as a Councillor for the Parish of St. Martins and I therefore respectfully solicit your votes and influence at the coming election. Your obedient servant, ROBERT CONNELLY, Great Salmon River, St. John, N. B., 1st October, 1913.

THE LADIES' FAVORITE They All Concede the Superiority of the Imperial Patterns.

In this age of progress there is always something better being produced every day. The old-style patterns for embroidery were very good until an improved process for transferring them was invented which goes hand-in-hand with the Imperial Pattern Office, and entirely eliminates the time and trouble of the hot iron method. The Standard is distributing these outfits, each of which contains over 100 different embroidery designs, a booklet of instructions and an all-metal spring hoop. The way to obtain them is to bring or send 6 coupons and 70 cents for each outfit wanted, or 10 cents extra if packet is to be mailed. Tenders will not be considered unless made on the forms supplied, and signed with the actual signatures of tenderers. Combined specification and form of tender can be obtained on application to the Secretary, Department of Public Works, Ottawa. Tenders must include the towing of the plant to do so, from the work. Dredges and tugs not owned and registered in Canada shall not be employed in the performance of the work contracted for. Contractors must be ready to begin work within thirty days after the date they have been notified of the acceptance of their tender. Each tender must be accompanied by an accepted cheque on a chartered bank payable to the order of the Honorable the Minister of Public Works, for five per cent (5 p. c.) of the contract price, but no cheque is to be for less than fifteen hundred dollars, which will be forfeited if the person tendering declines to enter into a contract when called upon to do so, or fail to complete the work contracted for. If the tender is not accepted the cheque will be returned to the tenderer. The Department does not bind itself to accept the lowest or any tender. By order, R. C. DESROCHERS, Secretary, Department of Public Works, Ottawa, Oct. 13, 1913. Newspapers will not be paid for this advertisement if they insert it without authority from the Department.

SEALED TENDERS, addressed to the undersigned, and endorsed "Tender for Dredging, Oak Point, N. B.," will be received until 4:00 p. m., Tuesday, October 21, 1913, for dredging and disposal of the material to be removed from a hunting trip on the Miramichi. He secured some small game, but only saw one moose and he was a mile away. A poultry demonstration station has been opened at the Harland poultry yards by the Department of Agriculture under the management of Robert Kinley. Demonstrations in feeding, fattening, dressing and packing will be given free of charge, on Wednesday of each week. This should prove of value to poultry breeders in this section. Geo. Burt, an aged and respected resident of this place, was stricken with paralysis on Sunday, and grave fears are entertained for his recovery. David Lovely's barn at Florenceville was burned with two head of cattle on Sunday. Edward Corbett, who has been missing for about two weeks, and who was thought killed by a train has been located. The keeper of the jail at Woodstock is looking after his welfare.
