

STORY OF RUSSIAN VICTORY IN POLAND ONE THAT WILL ASTONISH THE WORLD

Details When Available Will Tell Story of a Blow to Germany's Finest Troops Such as Has Not Been Known Since Napoleon's Time—First Account of Russian Baltic Fleets Success in Battle.

London, Nov. 28 (2.40 a.m.)—The Petrograd correspondent of the Morning Post says that when the full details of the Russian victory in Poland are available they will furnish a story that will astonish the world; a story telling of a blow to Germany's finest troops, such as has not been known since the days of Napoleon. The correspondent also makes an interesting disclosure concerning a success which he says was achieved by the Russian Baltic fleet, under command of Admiral Von Essen, early in September. His despatch in substance is as follows:

miral opened fire, sinking one German cruiser and badly damaging another, while the Russian destroyers put in good work on the smaller German craft. Having delivered this blow, the Russian vessels sailed home, untouched.

"The Germans, naturally remained silent regarding this fight, and for various reasons the Russians also kept quiet, but a number of the coveted St. George's Crosses were distributed among those who were responsible for the success of this venture. "In connection with the above story, it is interesting to note a brief statement, which was given out in London by the official News Bureau on September 4. This announcement was as follows: "According to information derived from a trustworthy source, seven German destroyers and torpedo boats have arrived at Kiel in a damaged condition, and it is understood that others have been sunk in the vicinity of the Kiel Canal.

AUSTRIANS BEGIN RETREAT NEAR CRACOW

Petrograd, Nov. 27.—The following statement has been received from the Russian commander-in-chief: "On the Gzenstochowa-Cracow front our successes are assuming a marked importance. Our troops on November 26 captured more than 4,000 prisoners. Our offensive was particularly fortunate on the lower Szenia river, where a whole battalion of the 31st Hovved Regiment surrendered.

"Our troops also stormed a powerfully fortified Austrian position on the left bank of the Raba, where some of our attacking units forded the river during the breaking up of the ice, and attacked the enemy. The water was neck-deep in the river.

"The Austrians desperately defended Bochnia (thirty-five miles southeast of Cracow), which we stormed, capturing more than 2,000 prisoners, machine guns and ten field guns. On the left bank of the Vistula, the enemy in the region of Cracow is beginning to retreat in disorder. Our troops are pursuing them energetically.

"According to the reports of the commanders of the armies the morale of our troops, who have been hardened by almost continuous fighting for forty-five days is very high.

"Trustworthy reports show that the Austrians have mounted in the steeple of the Cathedral in the centre of Cracow wireless apparatus and machine guns, for protection against attacking aeroplanes."

FINE MEETING AT NEWCASTLE

Col. Irving Has No Doubt Northumberland Will Have 100 Men in New Brunswick Regiment.

Special to The Standard.

Newcastle, Nov. 27.—A splendid recruiting meeting was held in the Opera House here tonight. William Parks presided, opened the meeting, and introduced the speakers while a mixed choir of fifty voices sang with splendid effect the choruses "Rule Britannia," "O Canada," "Tipperary," and the "Red, White and Blue." Mr. Jackson, the wireless station, Newcastle, contributed a solo, and slides were shown of the first contingent at Camp Valcartier, followed by the splendid film story "The Making of a British Soldier."

The speakers of the evening were Rev. Mr. Richardson, who delivered a splendid address, outlining the causes leading to the war and the determination of every Britisher to bear a manly part therein. He called up on the young men of Northumberland County to rally to the Empire banner at this time of need.

Captain Ralph A. March, of the 8th Princess Louise Hussars, who assisted Lieutenant Colonel Howard Irving, commanding officer of the 73rd Regiment, Chatham, and recruiting officer for Northumberland County, also spoke along the same lines.

At the close of the meeting between twenty and twenty-five men rushed to the stage and offered themselves for service. It was impossible to get all their names clearly but Col. Irving and the examining physician will hold a meeting at nine o'clock this morning to complete enrollment.

The following members of the 73rd regiment, now on duty at the wireless station here, volunteered for active service: Sergeant Rusk Wood of Richmond; Sergeant J. B. Springer, Chatham; Privates Charles Victoria, Chatham; Joe S. Gallant, Rogersville; Arthur Arbeau, Upper Blackville; Debow Autour, Upper Nickawack; Thomas Bell, Newcastle; Walter Mullin of Strathroy. In addition to these Percy Roman of Newcastle, Eugene Landry St. Margaret, and Harry Arsenault, of Lower Nickawack, have volunteered.

At Col. Irving is well pleased with the response made by Northumberland County. Already 67 men have been sent forward and he has not the slightest doubt that Northumberland will be represented in the 26th New Brunswick Battalion by at least 100 members.

Y. M. C. A. Social.

The seniors of the Y.M.C.A. held an enjoyable social last evening. Mr. Sheppard, the Y.M.C.A. military secretary, was present and told of work that was done at Valcartier and also the intentions of the association in regard to work to be carried on among the soldiers here. There were musical selections by Ronald Edwards, H. O. Bonk and Miss Leonard. Refreshments were served by the senior men and the Young Ladies' Aid. The gathering closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

Killed in a Sawmill

A. W. Anand of Truro, was killed in his sawmill at Beaver Brook on Tuesday evening. His clothing became caught in the fly wheel, and he was whirled around and hurled against the roof of the building. His skull was crushed, and it is said that death was instantaneous. He was about forty-five years old, and leaves a wife and family.

TERRITORIAL AND COLONIAL TROOPS SENT TO FRONT

Havre, Nov. 18.3.—During the last week colonial and territorial troops have been arriving from England by the thousands. A part of Kitchener's new army is expected soon, and the huts and floored tents now being erected in the outskirts of Havre are said to be for its reception.

The best trained Territorial troops which have been over here long enough to be somewhat acclimatized and broken into the ways of the country, are already being moved up toward the north, to take their places in the reserve. As soon as thought fit by the commanders, they will be moved into the first line of battle.

Tommy Atkins has nothing but praise for the French people. Some troops marched past the Market place in Havre the other day, according to an American there at the time, and the old American comrades held out their baskets for the soldiers to help themselves. This meant a great sacrifice to them, for their earnings are a matter of a few pennies, and they gave away their stock.

COL. WILLIAMS JOINS FRENCH'S STAFF AT FRONT

London, Nov. 27.—(Gazette cable)—Col. Victor Williams, camp commandant of the Canadian contingent, left to join Field Marshal Sir John French's staff at the front. Leaving, he was dined by the headquarters staff. Lt. Col. E. B. Clegh, commanding the 57th Peterboro Rangers, has been appointed commandant. The first divisional manoeuvres were carried through at Salisbury Plain today, under General Alderson, with General Pittam Campbell and his staff present. All the men and details took part and marched to Enford Downs, several miles distant, being out from nine a.m. to four p.m. and carrying rations and all equipment. The weather was favorable and the operations successful.

With a view to making the exercises more regular, all leave to the members of the contingent will be stopped after December 1.

The British medical journal in congratulating the war office on the relaxation of the height standard, points out that short men occupy less room in the transports, find cover more easily, offer smaller marks for bullets, and require shorter trenches.

SHOE MANUFACTURERS OF CANADA WILL TRY FOR WAR OFFICE ORDERS

Montreal, Nov. 27.—A co-operative association which will be known as the Canadian Shoe Manufacturers' Export Association will be formed here today. The company which embraces all the leading shoe manufacturers in the city, will make a determined effort to procure a portion of the shoe orders now being placed by the Imperial government, and to this end will immediately send Mr. A. R. Angus, of

UNIQUE AND LYRIC BREEZY NOTES

A bright new Bill for the Opera House Next Week

That the Thompson Musical Comedy Company now playing at the Opera House is becoming popular with the theatre-goers of St. John is shown by the large audiences that greet them at every performance. This week the company presented "The Follies of the Day" to capacity houses while the production for next week bids fair to beat all records. "Breaking Into Society" is the play selected for next week's production.

The story of the play concerns Abraham Levinsky and Patrick O'Brien, who, while crossing in the steamer, make a compact that should they marry and become prosperous they would help each other out and it was agreed that should one have a son and the other a daughter, they should marry. It so happened that O'Brien was blessed with a son and Levinsky adopts a daughter, Annie Moore, so according to the agreement they are engaged to marry, but the young people have ideas of their own regarding marriage and upset their parents' well laid plans by marrying their own choice. Many funny situations are developed throughout the action of the play.

The return of the real father of Annie Moore gives an excellent opportunity for real dramatic work. In the end everything works out happily and the fathers give their consent to the marriage.

Fourteen big musical numbers are on the program for next week and the production promises to be the best yet attempted by this clever company.

GLEEVER COLLIE IN FILM STORY

Million Dollar Mystery contains many mere thrills—At the Unique.

Undoubtedly the most sensational innovation presented by the producers of the "Million Dollar Mystery" is the trained collie who is successful in turning the tables against the conspirators and enabling the heroine to escape with the papers, the Stanley Hargreaves mysterious box contains, in the nineteenth chapter of the serial to be shown at the Unique Theatre next Monday and Tuesday. The situation that leads to the startling performance rendered by the canine is that in which Flo LaBelle, after overcoming many obstacles finally succeeds in getting some important papers which evidently relieve her father from persecution by the conspirators. She swims away with them, from the underground meeting place of the Four Hundred via a river. Braine pursues her in a motor boat, and when put in the open bay, overtakes and attacks her. Jim (Jack Cruise) who was strolling along the bank with his dog swims to her rescue. He pulls Braine out of the boat and engages in a battle royal in the water, when a number of toughs who have been waiting for a signal from Braine drop anchor and come to his aid. The dog, seeing his master getting the worst of the argument plunges into the rescue and with remarkable intelligence keeps the conspirators at bay while Jim and Flo man the power boat and escape. This performance of the four-footed actor will undoubtedly call for much comment, and aside from this fact some important events transpire, such as the securing of the mysterious papers and the unmasking of the Countess Olga before Florence Hargreaves. Other features on the programme represent excellent outlay of subject.
