FASHION REVIEW

AT DYKEMAN'S

WAS SUCCESSFUL

Young Lady Members of Y. W. P. A. Were Models—Their Salaries Go Toward the Patriotic Work of the Association.

The fashion review at Dykeman's last evening was largely attended and a large number of beautiful costumes were shown. Miss Jessie P. Church, president of the Y. W. P. A., was in charge and the salaries of the models go toward the patriotic work of the association. The ladies who acted as models were Emilie Climo, Eileen Courtney, Genevieve Killen, Louise Sheldon, Gladys Travis, Ina Rathbone, B. Saulmer, Thelma Alward, Frances Reid, Jennie Daye and Muriel Corkery. The correct accessories in the way of knitting bags, shopping bags, umbrellas and canes were carried by the models. Among some of the many spring-like and smart costumes worn by the mannequins were noticed the following:

A castor serge suit, the coat braided in the same shade, made with a high belt. An over collar of crepe falls in a lighter tone of castor, gave a new touch. The skirt of this suit had patch pockets and was like all the new skirts distinctly narrower for the narrow silhouette.

ENJOYABLE RECITAL
LARGELY ATTENDED

Given by Mrs. Samuel Richey in Y. M. C. I. Last Evening—Was Under Auspices of St. John Girls' Guild.

A packed house greeted Mrs. Samuel Richey last evening in the Y.M.C.I. building. Mrs. Richey's recital was enjoyable and too much cannot be said in regard to the efforts, she put forth to entertain her audience.

KINDERGARTEN
ASSOCIATION

Monthly Meeting Held Yesterday—Matters of Interest Discussed and Routine Business Transacted.

The Free Kindergarten Association held their monthly meeting yesterday afternoon in the Bible Society rooms on Germain street. The president, Mrs. T. N. Vincent, occupied the chair. A letter from the Premier in reply to the request sent to the legislature that kindergarten work would be taken up in the Provincial Normal School was read. It was promised that this matter would be taken up for consideration in the local legislature. A letter was also received from the Board of School Trustees regarding the granting of a room in the Bentley street school for kindergarten work. The matter was handed over to the building committee who will give it every consideration. Other routine business was taken up.

In Ottawa, March 20 and 21, returned to the city yesterday after spending the week end near Sherbrooke with her sister, Mrs. Maxwell Scott.

PERSONALS

J. A. Thompson of Montreal arrived in the city last evening and is registered at the Victoria.

RETURNS TO FRONT.

Major Laurence Allan, who for five weeks has been enjoying a leave of absence, with his relatives in Hamilton River, and St. John, expects to again set sail for England in the near future.

Major Allan was a popular commanding officer of the 6th Siege Battery. After a year spent in France on the firing line, he was sent to England on sick leave. After several months treatment in English hospitals, his health not improving as rapidly as was hoped for he was granted two months leave of absence. Although not entirely recovered from his recent illness, Major Allan is again leaving Canada with the firm resolve of getting to the front soon as opportunity offers.

A novel suit of purely military cut in "Sammy" serge had navy blue military braid trimmings and stitching of monaco wool. The coat seams were V-ed with the blue braid inset. Tight fitting and with truly military pockets is the coat. The skirt plain and narrow. A blue hat severely tailored was worn with this costume and madam-cloiselle carried a black shopping bag.

A redwood charmeuse gown is a variation on the usual shades. This shows georgette crepe sleeves with a tucked white vest, ball trimmings of the redwood color, a crush grille and new overskirt of irregular cut.

Midnight blue taffeta frock, the overskirt panelled back and front with shorter panels at the sides bordered with gold and black striped satin bands, cuffs ending in the same. The waist showed a panel of taffeta to the straight belt which fastened with three smoked pearl buttons, a white satin cow collar finished the neck.

Difficult to describe but very lovely was a black chiffon taffeta and georgette gown. Hanging draperies of crepe were banded with the taffeta and embroidered in white silk with white beads. The dress was tunic effect and the overskirt was made over white satin, giving a lighter tone. The sleeves of this frock ended in three cornered cuffs of taffeta, pilot edged. Worn with this was an Easter Meyer hat, black with crown of black ostrich and tiny black moire bows at intervals.

Among the sweaters was a worn silk in light cantelope with terra cotta stripe, the belt fastened with a white bone buckle and having two sash ends. The collar is in the new scarf effect from elbow to elbow with fringed ends of silk.

Another novelty is hand knitted wool in Nile green, three-quarter length, a wide sash ending in pom-poms and with two buttons of green and pink. The skirt of this sweater was knitted in pleats to show melon pink, brushed wool collar and cuffs. This was worn with skirt of green and sport hats, a knitting bag of green carried.

Another sweater of purple was worn with the new corn spotted raw silk, the spots being Hortensia purple. The hat to accompany has a roll brim in sand and Hortensia.

HYMN BEFORE ACTION.
E'en now their vanguard gathers,
E'en now we face the fray—
As Thou didst help our fathers,
Help Thou our host today!
Fulfilled of signs and wonders,
In life, in death made clear—
Jehovah of the Thunderers,
Lord God of Battles, hear!
—Rudyard Kipling.

HOUSEWIVES' LEAGUE.
A lecture was delivered before the members of the Housewives League yesterday afternoon in the King's Daughter's Guild by L. T. Floyd of the Department of Agriculture, Fredericton. The subject was the care of small fruit and the lecture gave direction for the choice plants, care of the ground, cultivation of the soil and care of the fruits. Strawberries, raspberries, gooseberries and currants were treated, and the cures for various insect troubles given.

The time to kill weeds is before you see them," seemed an excellent
