

RUSSIA CAN SUPPLY FOOD FOR EUROPE

Kraissine Claims if England and France Supply Railway Materials Bolshevik Government Will Feed All.

FLATTERING PICTURE RUSSIAN CONDITIONS

Everybody Happy to Work Unlimited Hours for Common Welfare - Want to Live at Peace with World.

Cross-Atlantic News Service. (Copyright) By "Potomac".

Stockholm, May 24.—Russia has sufficient food resources to feed all of Europe for years.

This is the assertion here of "Comrade" Kraissine, official representative of the Soviet Government.

"Workers and peasants are delighted to work unlimited hours for the common welfare. They have learned to understand that it is necessary to obey all orders issued by the Central Government."

"I am a firm believer in the principle of Bolshevism which has been put to the test and found true. We desire nothing more ardent than to live in peace with all the world, but for us there can be no peace with countries where capitalism rules. We are the sworn enemies of all forms of capitalism, European or American."

Kraissine is a personality of distinguished appearance. He speaks but a dozen languages. He has been accompanied here by his wife, who appears in costly furs and jewels, his children, and a small army of secretaries.

BULLISH INFLUENCE ON CORN MARKET

Upward Swings in the Corn Market, With Shorts Covering Freely, Continued Through Day.

Chicago, May 24.—Reports of planting delays throughout important sections had a decided bullish influence today on the corn market.

Upward swings in the corn market, with shorts covering freely, began almost immediately after the opening and, with no liquidation in evidence, continued until just before the close.

Buying attained its greatest impetus simultaneously with general notice of gossip that to an unusual extent well conditions had been a hindrance to getting the new crop into the ground.

LOVE AT HIS LANDLORD.

New York, May 23.—Max Pascal of 82 Wayne street appeared before Justice Aron L. Squires in the Supreme Court in Queens County for a hearing on his application for admission to United States citizenship.

My character witness, Judge, said Pascal, pointing to Rubin, "I am not," said Rubin promptly, "I will not stand for his character."

"What is the matter with him?" asked Justice Squires. "He is my landlord," replied Rubin. "Is that all you have against his character?" asked the judge.

"Yes," said Rubin. "He is all right, except that he is my landlord." Pascal was admitted to citizenship through the address report as to his status.
