District and General.

Blenheim has three miles of oiled streets.
Watford's county rate this year will amount to $1,745.43.

Blenheim Methodists gave Rev. Mr.
Dewy a purse of $85. He goes to Trinity church, Stratford.

It is announced that a $250,000 temperance hotel will be put up at London, with 200 rooms.

Results of the high school entrance examinations are expected to be ready for publication about July 15.

A picnic on the school grounds at Campbellton resulted in $185 being raised for the Red Cross fund.

Archie J. McMillan, of West Lorne, and Miss Mattie Jean Lindsay, of Rodney, were united in marriage at the residence of the bride's mother Wednesday, June 30.

J. A. Wessell, who has been principal of the Wardsville public school for the past six years, has tendered his resignation to accept the principalship of the Essex school.

A new enemy has entered some of the corn fields and is working in a peculiar way. The stalks are cut clean just above the second root and the outer leaves turn yellow and fall off.

Wm. J. Sloan, of Dunwich, for being intoxicated on a recent date in a local option district, was fined $20 and $7.50 costs, and was afterwards fined $25 and $2.75 costs for driving an auto while in an intoxicated condition.

The 37th annual lawn social under the auspices of St. James Church, Wardsville, was held in the rectory grounds on the evening of July 1, and was a most successful and splendid success.
The proceeds amounted to $100.

Early tomatoes will be an extra heavy crop at Ruthven this season.
The vines are heavily loaded down with the largest fruit seen in many years, and thousands of baskets will be ready for shipment in a few days.

While a party of nine Wallaceburg people were on Lake St. Clair in a motor boat on Sunday a small struck the boat and swamped it. Mr. and Mrs. Chester McDougall, Mrs. W. A.
Howard and Miss Eva Fothergill were drowned.

The pupils of the Campbellton school pleasantly surprised their teacher, Miss Kathleen Ellison, who is leaving for her home in St. Thomas, having resigned her position. She was presented with an address and a beautiful opal ring.

The fruit crop in Lambton county is generally light this year. Exports in favorable situations apples and peaches will not average 50 per cent. of a full crop. Cherries, pears, plums, grapes and smaller fruits will average a light crop.

McNabb Bros., of Southwell, have obtained the contract for the building of the Campbell bridge on the third concession of Dunwich, at a cost of $1-500. The structure, which is to be mainly of cement, is to be completed by September 15.

The committee of the 1st of July celebration at Strathroy are well pleased with the financial returns for the day. The total receipts amounted to over $1,300, and with the surplus from other days they will have more than enough to clear all expenses.

Statistics on Dominion Day demonstration in Petrolia show that more people attended than ever before. Six thousand people were present, and the total proceeds approach $1,800.
There will be a surplus of about $500, which will be used for patriotic purposes, possibly for a field kitchen.

Thomas Garbutt and Joseph Venning, two Dunwich farmers, were assessed $140.40 damages and $9.46 court costs for allowing their dogs to roam at large, causing a loss to Josiah Trothorn of eight sheep killed and eight worried, half of the amount to be paid by each of the defendants.

It is being mooted in the different parts of Lambton that the county will vote on the Canada Temperance Act.
There is no doubt expressed but that the act would be approved by a large majority. Every municipality in the county, except one, Alvinston, has given a majority for local option in recent contests.

At the meeting of the Grand Camp of the Sons of Scotland at Hamilton, Kintyre Camp, of Dutton, was honored by having one of its members, Alex. C. Gordon, elected as Grand Chief, the highest office in connection with the order. Mr. Gordon is one of the charter members of Kintyre Camp, and although he has been a resident of Toronto for a number of years, he has not transferred his membership.

Ontario's new board of license commissioners intend to make during the year a personal inspection of every hotel applying for a license in 1916.
Applicants are notified to put in their applications not later than July 15th next. It is expected that the inspectorial system in the province will be rearranged, with one provincial district inspector and as many other inspectors as may be required. The province will be divided into five or more inspectoral districts.

Hereafter all freaks are to be barred from Canada. Whether they are here for exhibition or other purposes makes no difference, the government has decided that foreign monstrosities must disappear. The customs inspectors at all border points have been instructed by the Department of Immigration that hereafter no freak of any nature calculated to hurt the eye of spectators or offend the sense in any way must be allowed to enter Canada.
Both in the west and east many human monstrosities have been coming across for the fair, and in the future these will be prohibited.

DEATH OF M. C. CAMPBELL

Collector of Customs at Glencoe, and a Prominent Citizen.

Malcolm C. Campbell, collector of customs at Glencoe and one of the town's most prominent and esteemed citizens, passed away at his home on Victoria street shortly after twelve o'clock on Monday night after an illness of some weeks with anemia.

A year ago last January Mr. Campbell fell while alighting from a train at Middlesboro, receiving injuries from which he never fully recovered.
About two weeks ago he went to Harper Hospital, Detroit, for treatment, but his case was pronounced hopeless and he returned home on Wednesday of last week. A few days before his death he resignedly made preparations for the end, even to the funeral arrangements.

Mr. Campbell was the only son of Mr. John Campbell, of Middlesboro, who survives him in his ninetieth year.
His mother died about twenty years ago. The father was a native of Cape Breton and first settled near Glencoe when he came to this part of Canada.
His mother was a native of Glasgow, Scotland. Surviving sisters are Mrs.
Wm. Carroll, of Dunwich; Mrs. David Cobban, of Rosetown, Sask.; and Mrs.
W. J. Richards, of Middlesboro. Mr.
Campbell was born May 24th, 1858.

Engaged in the life insurance business for many years, moving to Glencoe about twenty years ago, and was appointed collector of customs here when Glencoe was made a port of entry a few years ago. His wife, who survives him, was formerly Miss Margaret Hutchison, of West Lorne.

As a citizen who took an active interest in the welfare and development of both the social and industrial life of the community, Mr. Campbell will be greatly missed. He was a prominent Oddfellow and a member of the Sons of Scotland; was for several years secretary-treasurer of the Mosa and Ekfrid Agricultural Society, and at the time of his death was vice-president of the Glencoe Industrial Association. Besides he was prominently identified with the Glencoe Curling club since its organization, and was a valued member of the Presbyterian church.

The funeral will take place from his late residence on Thursday afternoon.
Service will be held in the Presbyterian church at three o'clock and interment will be in Oakland cemetery.

coe; Lillie McRoberts, Longwood; Edith Precious, Glencoe; Ada Rey-craft, Glencoe.

Social Evening and Presentation.

On the evening of Wednesday, June 30th, a number of friends and playmates of Margaret and John McEachren gathered at the schoolhouse of No. 5, Ekfrid, to say farewell to them before their departure for their new home at Kintyre. Margaret was presented with a beautiful gold wrist watch and John with a handsome watch and fob. Miss Marion McKellar and Master Willie Gardiner made the presentation and Miss Florence Hurley read the following address:

Dear Margaret and John:—We, your friends and playmates of St. James Five, Ekfrid, and community, have gathered here this evening because our hearts are filled with love and sympathy for you in the deep sorrow which has overshadowed you in the early morning of life.

We feel for you and regret that you are now to be separated from the happy circle of your little friends and schoolmates. We take this opportunity to say goodbye and ask you to accept and use these little tokens of our friendship, and we pray that the Great Friend of little children may bless you and keep you from all harm and guide your tender feet over life's rough way and lead you in the pathway of truth and righteousness and at length bring you to the Home above.

Robt. McKellar replied for the chilren, thanking the boys and girls and their friends for their kindness in making the evening so pleasant.

Short addresses by the Rev. Mr.
Weir and D. C. McKenzie, duets by Misses M. and G. Lovell, M. and Miss N. McAlpine, M. McAlpine and Mrs.
Grant and Master Stewart and Miss Dorothy Weir, a trio by Misses M.
Lovell, F. Graham and M. McEachren, a solo by Master Robert McKellar and a short recitation by Miss S. McKellar made up an interesting programme.
D. McAlpine's violin and Mr. McKen-zie's victrola were also appreciated.
The bride looked charming in her travelling dress of Belgian silk and the happy couple left on the 3.10 train amid showers of rice and confetti for their new home. They will reside at 808 Dundas street, London, and will be at home to their friends after August 1.

BASEBALL, WAR, MISERY

Letter From Front Runs Gamut of Human Emotions.

In seven days the ambulance corps in which he was serving treated over 5,000 wounded, writes Private H. H.
Owen, son of Rev. C. C. Owen of Christ Church, Vancouver, in a letter to his mother describing some of the terrible scenes he has witnessed during the past few weeks. The letter, which was in two sections, one before the heavy fighting of the latter part of April, and the other two weeks later, is a noteworthy one, reflecting the philosophy of the soldier often under fire and affording some idea of the psychological side of the great conflict.

"Last night was my turn in the trenches," he remarked in the first section of his letter, written on April 22. "Three of the 72nd have passed out during the past week. Ypres is a sight now: shelled to absolute ruins.
It is absolutely weird by moonlight and deserted but for an occasional sentry. Everything sounds hollow and ghostly. Bodies are strewn among the ruins. Refugees pass through all day, carrying all their worldly possessions wrapped up in a handkerchief or shawl. Most of them are women, children and old men.

"Yesterday by the dressing post an old man was playing a shell dropped about 25 yards in front of him, covering him with debris. He stopped, looked up a minute, then continued, his furrow passing through the hole made by the shell. He is the father of nine youngsters. His wife was killed by the Germans and the kiddies live, stuffed, but uncomplaining. Some of the boys pass them out rations to help the meagre produce of the shrapnelled farm. What indemnity could compensate them!"

"Today we had a few hours off and played the Queen's Own at baseball.
Our pitcher was under arrest so I had to go on in spite of a torn shoulder, and was lucky enough to hold them to two hits. We beat them 6 to 5.
Every inning was torture. Their pitcher was one of Toronto's best.
Shells were breaking a few hundred yards away while we were playing—but the human animal gets used to nearly everything.

The narrative breaks off to resume on May 4 with the following:— "A gap—full of life, death and hell.
You will have read more than enough of the slaughter house of Ypres and Langemark. I am too weary of blood to dilate at any length upon the sacrifice of Canada's lads, now called Canada's heroes. I have lost nearly every personal friend with the contingent.
The losses are irreparable—our own It may sound utterly selfish, but war is robbed of all its tinsel glory and pomp when a hero finds himself his last, while another hypnotized by the spirit of wholesale sacrifice and loyalty to his country, is hurled back to his place with no hope of ever coming back. It is then that war is shown up in its true colors, as the primitive survival in the mass of what the state denounces as criminal in the individual.
The Canadian division put not only its hand but its body and soul into the breach and suffered it to remain, broken and mutilated. Those who survived took themselves to the rear right have to live when the rest

"I could tell you stories innumerable that would make the deeds of the so-called Greek heroes seem tame and insignificant by comparison. At present I am still numbed. I, myself, feel a moral shame that I was not with Mc-Harg. Thank God I was able to do what I could without having a hanging fear that I dreamed might act at the critical time. Though you never hear a word you need never feel ashamed of your son's portion. Strangely enough, I thought of that when I was under fire.

"We only had a score of casualties in our corps. In seven days we treated and salvaged over 5,000 wounded.
A second 24 hours. I was wounded in the second 24 hours. I was wounded doublework, being of exceptionally strong stamina. I bandaged and dressed all day long and collected from the trenches all night. It was the most strenuous work of my existence—a blind struggle against the havoc of shot, shell and gas bomb."
