

A sign board
to be erected at each mile.

XI. Provided always, That the first section of the Ordinance amending the Act first cited in the preamble of this Act shall be repealed, and that the said Company shall, at each and every place where the said Branch or continuation, or the now existing Railroad, shall cross any highway on a level, erect and keep up a sign board stretching across the highway at such height as to leave sixteen feet from the highway to the lower edge of the sign board, and having the word "RAILWAY CROSSING," painted on each side of such sign board, in both languages, and in letters not less than six inches in length; and for each and every neglect to conform with the requirements of this section, the said Company shall incur a penalty not exceeding five pounds currency. 5 10

Company not to deviate
more than a mile from line
of Branch, &c.

XII. And be it enacted, That the said Company, in making the said intended Branch or continuation, shall not deviate more than a mile from the line of the Branch or continuation, or from the places assigned to the several works of the Company, in the map or plan and book of reference to be deposited as aforesaid, with reference to the said Branch, continuation and works respectively, nor cut, carry, place, lay down or convey the said Branch or continuation, into, through, across, under or over any of the lands or grounds, not shewn and mentioned in such map or plan and book of reference, as being required for such purpose, or as being within one mile of the said line and of the places assigned therein to them respectively, (save in such instances as are herein specially provided for,) without the consent of the party or parties who could, under the provisions of this Act, convey such lands. 15 20 25

Effect of error
in Book of reference.

XIII. And be it enacted, That the said Company may make, carry or place their said intended Branch or continuation, and works, into, across or upon the lands of any person or party whomsoever, on the line aforesaid, or within the distance aforesaid from such line, although the name of such party be not entered in the said book of reference, through error, want of sufficient information, or any other cause, or although some other person or party be erroneously mentioned as the owner of or party entitled to convey, or interested in such lands. 30 35

Lands in breadth, &c.

XIV. And be it enacted, That the lands or grounds to be taken or used for such intended Branch or continuation, and the ditches, drains and fences to separate the same from the adjoining lands, shall not exceed thirty yards in breadth, except in such places where the said intended Branch or continuation shall be raised more than five feet higher, or cut more than five feet deeper than the present surface of the land, and in such places where it shall be judged necessary to have off-sets for the locomotives, or other engines and carriages using the said intended Branch or continuation to lie or pass each other, (and not above one hundred yards in breadth in any such place,) or where any houses, warehouses, wharves, toll-houses, watch-houses, weighing-beams, cranes, fixed engines, or inclined planes, may be intended to be erected, or goods, wares, or merchandize be delivered, (and then not more than two hundred yards in length by one hundred and fifty yards in breadth,) without the consent of some party who can, under the provisions of this Act, convey such lands to the said Company; and the places at which such extra breadth is to be taken, shall be shewn on the said map or plan, so far as the same may be then ascertained; but their not being so shewn shall not prevent the Company from taking such extra breadth, provided it be taken upon the line shewn or within the distance aforesaid from such line: Provided always, that no land shall be taken by the said Company from any public highway, but their right shall be 40 45 50 55
