In the past few weeks, Judy Gould, of McNaughton Avenue, has been guest of honour at four miscellaneous showers.

The first was held at the home of the groom-to-be's aunt, Ivy Fenton, in Rexdale. Three of the bridesmaids, Marlene Wedgewood, Lyn Lord and Donna Cross, attended and assisted the bride-to-be in opening gifts.

The next shower was a community shower at Trinity United Church, Airport Road. Along with the three aforementioned bridesmaids, the matron of honour, Laura Beamish, and flower girl, Sandra Wedgewood, were among the 70 guests attending.

The third shower was given by Judy's fellow workers at Chrysler Air Temp. The fourth was given by the bride's aunt in Scarborough, Janette Gould.

The wedding will take place Aug. 26 at Trinity

Wedding set at St. Brides

St. Brides Anglican Church in Clarkson was the setting for the marriage of Jan Elizabeth LeRoy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A.W. LeRoy, Clarkson, to James Fraser Steen, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Steen, Port Credit.

Rev. T. Rooke officiated at the double-ring ceremony. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white dotted Swiss gown with matching train edged in lace. A waist-length veil fell from her Juliet cap and she carried a nosegay of miniature pink carnations and stephanotis.

Maid of honour Barb Barefoot wore a green floral print gown with a soft green picture hat and carried a basket of carnations, mums and baby's breath. Bridesmaids, Lynne and Marty LeRoy, sisters of the bride, and Cathy Steen, sister of the groom, wore pink floral gowns with soft pink picture hats and carried matching baskets of flowers.

Best man was Tim Trueman, Port Credit, and ushers were Tony Vooren, Brian McGowan and Dr. Mike Connolly, brother-in-law of the groom.

Mothers start play program

A group of mothers interested in providing their pre-school children with a stimulating play program has started a pre-school recreation program at the Burnhamthorpe Community Centre with the assistance of the Mississauga Recreation and Parks Department. For more information please call May Thompson, 279-6874.

WEDDING
Mauve potted mums

decorated Trinity United Church, Malton, on the occasion of the wedding of Betsy Bernice Currie and Christopher John Bootland. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Currie and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bootland of Malton.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an A-line gown of nylon lace with stand-up collar and long sleeves. The cathedral length train was of tiered lace. Her nylon tulle veil was held in place with white rose buds and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

Maid of honour was the bride's sister, Valerie Currie, and bridesmaid was Debbie Duggan. They wore identical dresses of mauve nylon chiffon over taffeta with embroidered bodices and wide-brimmed hats. They carried baskets of bachelor buttons. Amy Currie as flower girl was prettily attired in mauve and carried a basket of mixed flowers.

Bruce Brown was groomsman and ushers were Ray and David Bootland, brothers of the groom. A reception was held at the Malton Legion Branch 528.

TRAVELLING
After working for her fare, Marlis Jansen, Wrenwood Cres., finally embarked for a three week trip to Europe. The 16 year old girl will visit Holland, Germany, Belgium,
