

5th Witness
for Prosecution

B.73178 Pte. BAIN, D., 48th Highlanders of Canada, having been duly sworn, states:

"I found a toilet case in the back of my 8 cwt truck on 1 Jan 41, it was the same case Pte. Craig had been down at the Q.M. Office with. I took it into the Q.M. Office to find out who it belonged to. Sgt. Ruthven opened the case to see if there was any indication inside as to whom it belonged to."

for Prosecution

B.73078 L/Cpl. RELF, W.R., 48th Highlanders of Canada, having been duly sworn, states:

"On 1 Jan 41, the Accused came into the Q.M. Office. He had a toilet case with him, and asked me what I would do about selling it. I suggested raffling it off. He asked me who he should raffle it off to, and I told him to try the A.F.S. firemen, who live near Q.M.. He went out of the office. ~~I think he sold 5 tickets to the A.F.S. firemen.~~ NS
