

4th Witness for Prosecution

Mr. A. MacDonald, Crofter and steam raiser, L.M.S., residing at East Hill, Gulloden Moor.

A written statement of the witness's evidence purporting to be signed by him has been read to the accused and is included in this summary attached to be known as "Exhibit "A"."

Having regard to difficulty of obtaining the presence of this witness cannot in my opinion be readily procured. The accused does not demand the attendance of this witness for cross-examination.

R. E. Rappie, Capt.

5th Witness for Prosecution

Detective Sergeant G. G. Urquhart of the Inverness-shire Constabulary, The Castle, Inverness.

A written statement of the witness's evidence purporting to be signed by him has been read to the accused and is included in this summary attached to be known as "Exhibit "B"."

Having regard to difficulty of obtaining the presence of this witness cannot in my opinion be readily procured. The accused does not demand the attendance of this witness for cross-
examination.

R. E. Rappie, Capt.

