

This Volume IS INSCRIBED TO THE MEMORY OF COLONEL WILLIAM DUANE, OF PHILADELPHIA,

as a token of regard for the principles which guided his disinterested, manly career—for the sincerity, ability, and fearless independence with which he supported the cause of humanity, truth, and justice, often in situations of great trial, danger, and privation, while successively a resident of Asia, Europe, and America, during the last sixty years of his eventful life.

W. L. MACKENZIE.

Entered, according to Act of Congress, by W. L. MACKENZIE, in the Clerk's Office of the Southern District of New-York.
