LUCAN, C. W.

A flourishing village situated at the junction of the Grand Trunk Railway and the London and Goderich main road, in the township of Biddulph and county of Huron. The village is only yet in its infancy, having only come into being a few years since. Its material advantage consists of its being situated in the midst of the best wheat and other grain-growing counties in Canada West; from this fact, and the distance to London being only 16 miles, the farmers invariably make Lucan their market; the consequence of which is, that it is fast growing into a thriving village. Distant from Sarnia, 55 miles; St. Mary's, 15 miles; Toronto, 110 miles; and from Montreal, 443 miles. Daily mail. Population, 200.
