T. F. WRIGHT
Principal

As I could not find words to express myself when you were leaving, I could not tell you how much I appreciated your methods of teaching. I do not consider there was one single flaw in your explanations as you gave them so clear that I seldom found it necessary to ask questions. I assure you that if I have any friends desirous of taking a course in any business college I will recommend the one that Mr. T. F. Wright is Principal of. Unsolicited.

CHAS. E. SMITH
Head of Shorthand-
Typewriting
Dept.

I am pleased to state that I consider "A Practical Course in Touch Typewriting," the only text-book from which I studied, the best typewriter instruction book that I have seen. The exercises are excellent, and have helped me wonderfully in working up speed. The whole course is very interesting from the beginning, and it cannot but produce the best results in the shortest time. I attribute my success in typewriting in a large measure to the assistance given me by Mr. Chas. E. Smith, the author of the book, and I am sure anyone who uses it will be more than pleased with the results.—ROSE L. FRITZ.

Mr. G. C. Kreighbaum, during his course at the Cleary Business College, Ypsilanti, Mich., became intimately associated with Mr. C. C. Canan, undoubtedly the greatest all-round penman of his day. Under Mr. Canan's personal instruction, he received an inspiration to become another of America's ideal penmen. With this idea in view he subsequently took an eight months' course under Mr. C. P. Zaner, of the Zanerian Art College, Columbus, Ohio. Writing masters accede to Mr. Zaner first place as a penman and teacher of pen work. Mr. Kreighbaum's natural taste and ability, supported by this best of training, has made of him a first-class writer and superior teacher of penmanship work.
