

PREMIER MARCHAND DEAD.

The Hon. Mr. F. G. Marchand, one of the most esteemed public men in the Province of Quebec, who had been seriously ill all summer, and whose recovery had been despaired of for the last two weeks, died Tuesday evening.

Leont-Colonel the Hon. Felix Gabriel Marchand was the son of the late Mr. Gabriel Marchand, merchant, who in 1802 removed from Quebec and settled in St. Johns, where the subject of this sketch was born on Jan. 9, 1832.

MORE RUSSIANS COMING.

Three Russian delegates from southern Russia, named Phillip Shubin, Ivan Bucknell and Ivan Samarin, arrived in Montreal this week from Ottawa, accompanied by Mr. Frank Pettley, the superintendent of immigration for the Dominion Government.

The purpose of this visit was to make preliminary arrangements with Canadian Pacific Railway authorities for the transportation next winter of 7,000 of their compatriots who purpose leaving the Czar's dominions in southern Russia to settle in the Canadian West.

PROFITS IN PATENTS.

A Jewell county (Kansas) man, who invented a tool combining a hammer, hatchet, screwdriver, pincers, wire-cutter, punch and several other tools, has secured $800 worth of them in one month.

Charles Berkhoter, of Hosenack, Pa., has sold his patent process for tanning leather to an Allentown syndicate for $25,000, and a royalty of one cent per skin tanned for seven years.

Emanuel Edlin, delivery clerk in Anderson, Ohio, furnished the money a year ago to take out a patent on a sofa invented by a colored woman, Mrs. Lulu Gotth, of Bridgeport, Conn. They have just sold the patent for $3,000.

ONE MORE.

The Rev. Sisters of the Congregation de Notre Dame, Sherbrooke, Que., have purchased a beautiful Cabinet grand KARN piano for the use of their advanced pupils.
