Episcopal Approbation.

If the English Speaking Catholics of Montreal and of this Province consulted their best interests, they would soon make of the TRUE WITNESS one of the most prosperous and powerful Catholic papers in this country.

I heartily bless those who encourage this excellent work. * PAUL,

ANOTHER FLAG INCIDENT.

After having declared that no Catholic would be employed by it, there was nothing surprising in the order issued by the Board of Education that the flag was to fly over all school buildings in Toronto on July 12th. That was a gross insult and one which no citizen of this country should meekly submit to. The cele bration of the twelfth is to commemorate a rebel victory, and while we may permit the descendants of these people to mark the anniversary, we cannot allow any public recognition of the occasion. The flag which flies over the Dominion waves over a community of peaceful and libertyloving people; a homogeneous nation builded from heterogeneous ma terial. We should be Canadians and not factionists. The Orangeman narrow and bigoted and in this country we have no room to house the factionists of other lands. In Canada we find the Orangeman padested in many places. rading uns As a contrary picture we find the Orangemen in Liverpool attacking Catholic processions and playing the role of the cowardly bully; in therwell as find him making an onset on a defenceless priest. There is a lesson in that and one which should be sent home to the nois braggarts who are bravest facing women and children. It is well described by a Protestant ratepayer of Toronto who wrote pro-The first took place last year that sounds well in Ontario. At Toronto Controller Hocken had warning to issue. He told friends that the Roman Catholics of Quebec were planning an invasion of their rights in Ontario. Mr. Hocker had some inside information to offer and he announced that at Plenary Council at Quebec the order would go forth to oppose the extension of Manitoba boundaries if the Federal Government did not es ablish separate schools. Naturally, he urged Orangemen to resist these "demands." The Orange idea ... liberty is strangely reminiscent of th Puritan ago.

CATHOLIC UNITY.

Two suggestions offered at the annual meeting of the Catholic Union of Great Britain affects Canada immediately, while one is of nterest throughout the Empire That there is a deep sympathy to wards their fellow Catholics of the Dominion was plainly evidenced in the generous manner by which promptings of His Grave the Archbishop of Westminster, that there should be a large representation of English Catholics for the Euchariatic Congress in Montreal next year, were received. Judging from the replies made we may expect to see talk some notable personages. The other matter which is of interest not only to Canadians, but to all Catholics, was the matter of the Royal Declaration. It was suggested that Catholics, not only of Great Britain and Ireland, but throughout the Empire, should unite and maintain an attitude of dignified protest against the insult which their sovereign is compelled to offer during the ceremonies attendant upon his coronation. It is certainly a matter in which all could unite, and unity of expression from many parts of an empire on which the sun never sets would command a respectful attention.

CATHOLICS IN THE WEST.

In a general way we of the east are aware that there are many ongues in the western provinces, but it is with amazement that one discovers that Catholics of the French and English tongues do not amount to fifty percentum of the population over which His Grace of St. Boniface rules. Briefly there in the ecclesiastical province are 219.173 Catholics, of which 61,000 speak the French language and 31,-000 confess in the sterner English tongue. There are 70,000 Rutheaians, 25,000 Germans, 15,000 Poles, 13,000 Indians; while there is a group of 5000 people who speak vaious European tongues. A synopsis of the religious population of the province of St. Boniface is given sowhere in these columns and offers interesting reading. The strength of the German and Polish communities may best be understood when it is told that the German Catholics meet in convention in Winnipeg during the present week, while their brothers of the Polish tongue will gather in the same city in Septem-The German Katholikentag, ber. which is a general assembly of priests and people for the purpose of discussing matters affecting their religious, moral, educational, social and political welfare, is the second gathering of its kind held in the west.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINA-

The number of pupils from Catho ic schools who go up for the McGill matriculation examination is not It is therefore pleasing to find a Catholic boy head the list in the Applied Science examination, Stephen John Murphy, of St. Paitrick's School, being the fortunate Two other pupils of Catholic lad. schools who qualified in the entrance examination to this faculty were Alphonsus Edward Hanley, Mount St. Leuis Institute, and Francis Nehin, St. Patrick's. One pupil of Mount the Catholic High requires one subject to qualify in Arts, while St. Patrick's and Mount St. Louis will each add a student in Science after an examination in one subject. St. Patrick's teachers have paid considerable attention to preparation for McGill, and their success is well deserved.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The dog days weather seems to have a strong influence on the Montreal City Council. Some of its members ought to take a rest.

Current Topics. BRITISH REVENUE SHOWS INCREASE.

The return issued of the total re-venue of the United Kingdom for the first quarter of the current fiscal year, shows an increase in receipts as compared with the first quarter of the previous year of £1,382,005, the revenue for the quarter just pass-ed amounting to £31,694,678 com-pared with £30,312,613 for the first quarter of 1908.

pared with £30,312,613 for the first quarter of 1908. Mr. Lloyd George, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, in his Budget statement, estimated that on the ba-sis of the new taxation proposals, the tetal revenue for the year would amount to £162,590,000, an increase as compared with the realized re-venue of the previous year, of £11as compared with the realized revenue of the previous year, of  $\pounds 11$ , 012,000, and towards this last-name ed sum only the first-mentioned amount has been realized.

CONGO AND INDIA-UNDER DISCUSSION.

By an ironical coincidence the Lon-don Daily Mail on Monday published a severe atraignment of Belgian rule in the Congo, and the Paris Eclair published a not less scathing im-peachment of British rule in India. Virtually the whole landthe the Congo-has been monopolized," says the Daily Mail, "for the benefit

SIR R. W. SCOTT AND THE TABLET.

Of the new colonial knights pro-per, perhaps the most interesting is a Catholic, Sir Richard Wittam Scott the veteran of Canadian Liberalism, the veteran of Canadian Liberalism, who, at the age of eighty-five, can regard Sir Wilfrid Laurier as a very young junior. Sir Richard's service as Secretary of State at Ottawa goes back to the Liberal lease of power under Mr. Mackenzie. from 1873 to 1878, comments a writer in The London Tablet. During the long Conservative tenure that fol-lowed, he led the Opposition in the Senate; and on the formation of the Laurier Cabinet in 1896, be was Laurier Cabinet in 1896, he was re-appointed to his old post, from which he retired only a year ago, when his place was taken by that very able man, Mr. Charles Murphy. It was Sir Richard Scott who car-ried through a bill forty-sit wars ried through a bill forty-six years ago empowering Catholics to establish separate schools in Upper Ca-nada—then the name for Ontario. A few years later he became Speaker of the Ontario Legislature, a body which, at that time, numbered but two other Catholics besides himself.

THE FASHIONS AND MORALITY

A recent issue of the Osservatore Romano, the organ of the Vatican, contains a scabhing denunciation of the tendencies of the feminine fash-ions of to-day. Taking as its text the petition against the immoral the petition against the immoral press forwarded by the Catholic la-dies of Borgamo to the Minister of the Interior and signed by several thousand Italian women, the Osser-vators area:

"We hope the competent authorities will apply the law against the ties will apply the law against these new Augean stables. At the same time we cannot but deplore another danger to good morals which comes to us from other countries, and against which women might well unite. these insurgents have been christened the "Cave," and are not considered to be worth much attention. For to be worth much attention. For Parliamentary purposes no doubt they can be ignored, even when tak-en in conjunction with the Irish Na-tionalists, who so far have voted against the bill. It is hardly conceivable that, how-ever much popular indignation may be aroused against the budget, the government will ever on an import-ant vote find itself entirely bereft of its large majority. Despite all that ant vote find itself entirely bereft of its large majority. Despite all that is being said in the press to the con-trary, there is very little chance of Lloyd-George being forced to amend his finance bill against his will. If changes are to be made they will come in one or both of two ways, by a voluntary withdrawal of certain clauses in deference to public opi-nion, or by the action of the House of Lords.

UNIVERSITY STUDENTS. An important movement has been inaugurated for the interchange of university students 'in the United Kingdom, the United States, and Canada, with the object of giving those who are likely to become lea-ders in thought or action a real in-sight into the life, customs and progress of other nations. Lord Strathcona has consented to become president for the United Kingdom, while among the vice-presidents, who include representatives of all the British universities, are Mr. As-quith, Lord Milner, Lord Loreburn, Lord Curzon, Mr. Balfour, the Duke of Morfolk, and the Bishop of Lor-don.
