dominion. Pelee Island has now its Catholic Church and the Catholic people of the island are proud of it. Though small, it is a thing of beauty and answers the present needs of the Catholic islanders. It was solemnly dedicated on the 15th inst. by the Very Rev. Dean Wagner, assisted by father McKeon, L. There was also present a large number of excursionists, who had come down from Windsor to gladden the hearts of their Catholic brethren of the Island, and fraternise with them on the auspicious consion.
Pelee Ialand has now a population of about seven hundred souls, but when fully brought under cultivation it will be able to provide a living for fully three thousand.
One of the reasons of its backward of which renders communication with the main island very uncertain, as no boat dares lay over night, nor in fact dares go near the island in rough weather.

on the promptness and emission of these officers. Your committee respectfully urge Branch officers to be very particular in forwarding their annual statement of re-mittance, to the chairman of this com-mittee, in compliance with section 4, article vii, of our constitution. Several branches neglested forwarding said reports for the year ending July 14, 1887, and a large number of those received, were so inaccurate, as to be worthles. We recommend Branches in all cases to make remittances to our Grand Secretary, either by post office order, or draft only. JAMES QUILLINAN, THOMAS ON BAIL, JOHN RONAN. London, July 19th, 1887.

Editor of the Catholic Re Editor of the Catholic record. DEAR SIR-Having attended the meet-ing of the trustees of the C. M. B. A on the 14th inst at London in conjunction with the other trustees of the Society, the lith inst at London in co.junction with the other trustees of the Bociety, and pursuant to our duty examined the books of the grand secretary which were a model of nestness and accuracy reflecting the highest credit on our worthy grand secretary, Mr. Samuel R Brown, whose unremitting care in the smallest details of the working of the var-ious branches of the society as well as the controus manner in which he treats all the officers of the society in which his laborious duties bring him in contact. It is a question in my mind if it would not be in the interest of the society to procure the services of such an efficient officer permanently as I think the loss of the services of such a spractical and responsible servers would be bard to replace. Trusting that the trus-tees or other members of the Society will ee to it before the next meeting of the Grand Council or separation takes place between the Dominion and the United States. Yours fratemally, District Deputy, Guelph, Ont.

FROM PELEE ISLAND.

DEAR RECORD.—Again I claim a space in your valuable columns to still further bring into prominence that dear little island, the gem of all the isles with which the western portion of Lake Erie is so beautifully dotted. I call it the gem of Erie isles, not because of its apparent beauties, though even these are by no means to be despised, but because of what it is destined to become, when our good and progressive government will nave done justice to this long-forgotten and ignored portion of its extensive dominion.

and the demands upon them, by detey, men, for wines to be used for sacramen-tal purposes, are so great that they can scarcely be supplied. And yet, so far, only a small portion of the olergy of the Dominion are even aware of the capabil ities of Essex in this respect. But the time is coming when all the priests of the Dominion will look to us for sacra-mental wines. Now Pelee is the spot, which above all others, will, in the near future, supply the market with this most necessary article, especially the Catowba, which nowhere else in the Dominion comes to full maturity. I hope these few remarks of mise may reach those for whom they are in-tended; if so, Pelee may soon become one of the most prosperous townships, Dr. Patton wrote on Saturday last with a haraseing remembrance of Spalding and Paddington, and a horrible pre-sentment of Coventry. Already the English public are beginning to realize that the Coercion Act, for whose safety the degraded, is an Act to promote crime, not to prevent it. The reluctant admission of the assise judges cannot fail to complete their education. "If any man tells you," said Mr. Gladetone, "that this is a Bill for the suppression of crime, laugh 'in his face." "If any man tells you," say the Judges of Assiza, in still more emphatic language, "that this is a Bill for the sup-pression of crime, he lies in his throat."

MEN WITH A SPEECH OF FIRE. At Coolgreany, on the 15th inst. a meeting of the Nationalists was held under the presidency of Rev. Dr. Diflon. Michael Davitt was the principal speaker. Mr. Davitt, who was received with cheers again and again renewed, said : Father Dillon, tellow countrymen, I regret I have not been able to be pre-sent at these evictions before to-day, but that has been owing to my absence in England and Scotland, where I have been addressing a series of meetings upon coercion and eviction in Ireland. I could not, if I spoke to you for two hours, exaggerate the depth of the sym-pathy which is felt throughout the length and breadth of Ecgland, Wales and Scotland for those of our people who are being evicted under present circum. pathy which is felt throughout the length and breadth of Eogland, Wales and Scotland for those of our people who are being evicted under present circum-stances in Ireland by the legalized burg-lars of the landlord system. But I wish to tell you this fact in connection with this kindly feeling towards you on the other side of the water, that the sympa-thy of the British working classes for you will be in proportion to the manly resistance which you offer to those who, in the name of an infamous law, violate the sacred right of the domestic hearth-stone. And I may say that I don't think the people who have been evicted to day are deserving of one particle of sympathy from England or any other part of the civilized world. I confess I feel-I won't say disguited—but cer-tainly very much disappointed, at THE LITTLE EXHIBITION OF COURAGE that has been shown by Wexford men to day. I don't care how you like those sentiments, my friends. I observe that you are very good cheerers, you can to day. I don't care boy you like those sentiments, my friends. I observe that you are very good cheerers, you can thousand of you all you did was to cheer and call them names. You will nevel win from Eoglishmen or from your own countrymen in America one particle of you, say that you have been advised by people in whose judgment you rely pro-bably more than in mine. You have been advised by these gentlemen not to resist. Well, for my part, I would rathe be marched off to night to prison and undergo three months on the hardes plank bed in Ireland for having shown some resistance to the legalized marau ders who have been here to day than to go to prison by and by when the coercion act is passed, and get six months for doing nothing. For my part, I will b glad if I hear in a tew months' time tha a good many of the young me of Cool greany are sent to prison under the coercion act, for, from my point of view they have deserved it from the splendi passive resistances they have shown to THE EMERGENCY BURGLAE BRIGADE. I say that when a people, be they of the domestic beartatone to be view to the in the mit without showing an resistance—when they permit the rig of the domestic beartatone to be view to the I will make up my mind that rentance while the artistone to be viola of the domestic heartstone to be viola ted, then I will make up my mind that these are a people that will neve fight for the honor or independence of the countrymen. (A voice—We wi fight for the honor or independence their countrymen. (A voice-We wi never fail) Mr. Davitt-No, you wi never fail-in talking. It talking an making speeches and cheering cou prevent the evictions to day you wou have gained a very easy vistory ov your enemies. I am proud to have acknowledge that there has been som thing like what I will call Bodyke cou age shown by a few boys and girls sind these evictions commenced. Now, I do age shown by a few boys and girls simi-these evictions commenced. Now, I do not want to be misunderstood. I have not asked the people of Bodyke, nor d I ask you to day, to do anything that w be rash or suicidal; but I called on the down there to show something lil rational resistance in the defence their homesteads. I put it to you in th way as I put it in England to Englishme in defence of the people of Bodyk Assuming for argument sake that Brook the landlord, can claim this land as I property. I don't assume that he h that right, but if he has, what claim h he to those cottages, built by the prese cocupier or his predecessors in title? I has no more claim to them than I has to this land that he calls his own. At when, in addition to gaining possession
